

and Pikachu just kept staring at you and looking at me and was very excited and was saying a single thing consistently,he you know understands me as well as anybody and he himself was happy to see you again after a very long time and he was always on my shoulder the moment during breakup we last saw each other,he doesn't understand these things the way we know,his worldview is totally different than ours,but probably he must've felt something as we didn't call and all that,so he was happy and pointing to your picture in a low voice started constantly saying one word "Pikachupi!Pikachupi!Pikachupi" his word for "MISTY"..and i just felt like i was looking at something so familiar yet so far as if i was touching something kept in front of me yet the touch felt like as if it's lives million lives apart..as if i knew somehow a million years ago in a life many many lives ago and shared some memories that were so precious that i just couldn't move after all these many years later

despite my internal bliss it was only covering a darkness that i'm touching something long gone..and Pikachupi flet like warm breeze hitting my face constantly, without ceasing,and tears automatically rolled down my cheeks..and(bit choked)..it was then i first had a glimpse of what you really are to me..there it actually felt like it's only me million lifes ago yet so far away and it's as if just another type of body that i had and i've ever so longed for a grand union again and it wasn't like looking at your own 5 year old picture,it was something way way stronger than anything i ever have heard,read,seen or experienced that i can relate to..it was so natural..i forgot actually i can't really describe what i did see but i didn't see flesh and blood at all there as by then it i had become habituated to by analysis and no i didn't even remember any good things that you may've ever done to me or who you were etc,Pikachu's words and this picture had given me the realization that i never imagined,i just realized as if someone firmly but gently speaking in my head in my own voice- "MISTY-that's your soul,you are that as well and the difference you're making is only your illusion,you are Misty and Misty is you,no difference is there,see it for yourself"..and I don't know how long i stood there or i just didn't want to part..here here here..

Misty(deep sigh) : "Ash, you're also a Disaster Master!why break this moment up?i was seeing that as well.."

Ash(bit puzzled) : "um..sorry..but(laugh)..i just realized now that if then,exactly then some vulture dared to be around and this is another God's Grace that they didn't,but if they did and disturbed me or gave the scene to the press,i would've been very happy to set at that very moment all of my pokemons on the vulture if i was even remotely disturbed then or my moment went public,but God didn't let that happen out of the infinite compassion,so some vultures were saved and No,Mist really,if i didn't get you due to some vulture then disturbing me,my name would've been written with blood then and there and i knew nobody present in that building,Lance included could do anything about me or my pokemons actions and it wouldn't have been nice and i would've become a real nerve wreck then as i would've tried to push my pokemons to absolute ultimate,killing them and myself in the process..now so hopefully vultures showed some intelligence there and saved their godforsaken lives and MINE as well..anyhow..vulture is a good name i.."

Misty(frown) : "Ash,i would like that the infinite compassion be helpful to you in restraining me from smacking you the next time you suddenly drag vultures in a most beautiful scene,continue now"

Ash(laugh) : "alright,alright,so the vultur..um,no don't do that(Misty lightly smacks Ash's head),its ok(laugh)..ok do that always but gently.."

Misty(sigh) : "Ash,please you.."

Ash(smile) : "ok,ok,bare with me,i'm just back,so i was in this trance like state and then i was brought back to my senses by a Gentle hand on my shoulders..it was Lance,and i also recognised that Pikachu had long stopped uttering your name and was constantly looking at me,so i just suddenly was brought back to my senses and looking at Lance was just startled and didn't know what to say,in the mean time Noivern had put the picture back and is now standing beside me,i called him back but i had no words at all in my head,then Lance very gently broke the silence saying,that he knew Professor Oak as well as and knew me for ages,in his words->

Lance : "Ash! you alright?"

Ash(stuttering) : "um..it's all right..i just..um.."

Lance(kind face) : "Lost in thoughts?"

Ash(thoughtfull) : "yeah i guess"

Lance : "Ash you've been standing like this for 15 minutes at least as i've entered here and was just observing you and i left you here 15 minutes ago,so it must be 30 minutes then or there about.Ash, the tears" and then i suddenly realized i cried a lot and quickly wiped off the tears and

Ash : "um..no it's alright Lance..i just.."

Lance : "Ash, it's alright,i know her well,Misty Waterflower,the current Gym Leader of Cerulian City was your first and constant travel companion for 5 long years and then she came to Cerulian Gym and did brilliantly and she was also.."

I don't know Mist,but suddenly these past tense words - "was,came,did,was"..became unbearable to me and i burst out in a bit of choked but high pitched voice

Ash(bit choked,bit high pitched) : "Please,enough!"

Lance : "Ash.."

Ash : "um..sorry..but she's still alive and it just felt a bit..um..well.. awkward,anyhow um..sorry for shouting at you Lance..i'm terrib.."

Lance : "Ash,it's all right,you were wanting to know more about Misty right?"

Ash : "Lance it's ok..i'll just ask someone else..your responsibilities.."

Lance(firmly shrugging off) : "Ash,i know my responsibilities and restrictions,i can tell you about Misty Waterflower from Cerulian City Gym and Frontier symbol all that i reliably and personally know,but you must stay here tonight as we have to finish with this,you've been absent from the dinner for too long,you must comply with me"..

see i took the chance because..please this is just jokingly..i politely asked Lance if i could mouth the press off and if i swore may he spare me,Lance smiled and said that he himself will get rid of the press and will finish the night as quickly as possible and besides not much was left of it..so,anyhow i couldn't thrash the vultures then and there for their campaign to ruin my personal life and so again Lance saved himself and vultures..thus it happened.."

Misty : "um..Ash,we better go and eat something"

Ash : wait just a bit..

Ash : "so,as i was saying,then i just returned to your picture and Noivern kept holding it and i kept gazing at you,i did it just to recreate the moment and Lance obliged"

Misty(blush a bit) : "um..Ash,i may again have to face Lance very soon.."

Ash(smile) : "na,it's alright with him, your like his second daughter or even much younger i guess, it's alright,but here you must bear with me again as i want to contrast the reasons why other people thought we're made for each other"

Misty(smile) : "ya,i would."

Ash(smile) : "alright,Lance told me as i was again tendering the picture,that what you were upto with your activities and overwork, suddenly turning on the Frontier Symbol for pestering you and then creating legal skirmish,besides if that brat is ever seen again at Cerulian or anywhere in the world, i would also like to battle him,but unlike you,i'll do it illegally.."

Misty : "yes Ash,i had to,he was pestering me first due to my name and fame and all that,then when he got a rude awakening there he started name calling and dragging my friends and family into it and doing all that,so i had to take actions as all my sisters supported me and we got rid of him from there and while busting we we found out he was using illegal performance enhancers and all that,so his water pokemons were added to me,others went to different labs,well Gary managed to take the 90% actually..haha..he was extending the lab then so he began and actually it was a good advertisement as well...anyhow that was almost two years ago but you can continue now"

Ash(tendering Misty's cheeks) : "No Mist,i shouldn't have left you just like that,anyhow..lets reminisce,so Lance told the stories and all about you and your recent problems,i almost instantly knew that you actually was only longing to see me and was entrapped in a golden cage with the huge responsibility of polishing it everyday,so you finally resorted to your pokemons and gym and frontier and all else and it did get you in Hall of Fame but you weren't all right..by the way Green met me in Unova Elite 4,my first,and was trying to imply that if i ever had any special relationship with Pewter City gym leader before as he recently met Kane Slate and he spoke about me and he was a friend of Foster but was away for a long time,he told me he won the Orange and Kanto titles and was a big fan of mine,he's 30 now same age as Gary,I just complemented him for his success saying i myself couldn't win Kanto and all and said yes Pewter was my first gym ever and Kane Slate did help me a lot on that day and the Gym leader himself was very kind and gave me the badge only on faith that i'll get better as none of my then 3 Pokemons were anywhere near his Pokémon in competition...but I said i forgot whether it was Kane Slate or one of his sons that were the actual gym leader then and yes it was 16 years ago and i've never been in Pewter since then so just can't recall the gym leader's name and it's an honour for me if Mr. Kane Slate has still remembered me..so then i saw Green's face was sort of very puzzled as if he didn't expect this humility from me to a random stranger like him that too given my reputation..so just kinda felt awkward but smartly just spoke about pokemon this that,his few experiences and I was happy it was about 6/7 minutes good chat but i felt that he's there to say something else but just was flustered at my humility..so i tried to break the ice saying from why he has come if there's any urgency from somewhere else if it is he can say..

he kinda stammered and said he was from Orange Elite4 and as he was a 2 time champion and himself got an Orange League he got a job there and they want me to take over as a top post there in Orange Elite4 so i said alright i know Lance himself personally and through him i'll learn the matter..then he was hesitant and said he actually wanted to know if i'll go to Orange or Kanto next then they could've discussed it cause there's some problems regarding Pokemons in Kanto some theft and some legendary pokemons have been spotted and thus as i was on the Team Rocket bust up,may be somehow i might help...now this gave me a real jolt cause i knew more than anyone that Team Rocket 2 was an impossibility as the Kalos case involving me finished 9 months ago and Team Rocket boss just became my pet after Crawdauntogator pulled their tricks on him and made him absolutely bewildered and he admitted to me he can't imagine such a thing and he sais another Team Rocket 2 as long as I'm alive is simply meaningless cause my such two common pokemons could've beaten even if he had his Mewtwo and Arceus...and later too Sinnoh Elite4 is my absolute pets as the busting was there,i won there so miraculously and Laura,you remember her,was very fond of me...and

Laura passes away around 2 months after I started Kalos but she after knowing the Team Rocket thing just one day told me through a source that i'm the a huge legend as a Pokemon Master and she herself said she couldn't imagine that battle and said if i continue i might become Once Only cause that was great then just blessed me and all..i have huge respect for her and i just replied that my gratitude that i'll no matter what ever remain her grandson in all aspects and that's all...so Sinnoh Elite4 would do anything i want them to and Lance knows me since we were in Jhoto and he'll surely tell me..so i got very suspicious as to what his motive was so i held him up and rang Lance and so that he wasn't the messenger from Orange Elite4 and i just politely asked him that why was he so desperate to meet me and try to insinuate something to me being a good enough Pokemon trainer having won Orange and Kanto League,why was he after me and then he stammered a bit and then i pressed him for his hometown address,he had to admit that he was from Cerulian,as soon as i heard that name i told him there's no need to pull such stunts on me i've not yet won a single Elite 4,winning only 6 leagues and threatened him that if he pesters me further,i'll personally love to battle him and snatch away his Orange League trophy cause mine just got a bit old and i'll do all this by means of pokemon battling,to which he cringed but still being a Two League Champion he felt humiliated and just agreed to battle me,but I said i would only after the Elite 4 match but Green got a bit awestruck but was still willing to battle as himself being two league champion and having won Kanto recently,and i have big respect for him as he reminded me of myself but just before we started i trash talked him in the press without naming which got him angry and he was about to get physically involved with me,which created tension as he was well known himself but somehow we managed to cover it up then i told him personally that listen mate,just tell me the reason for your desparation and obsession with me i feel physically threatened compelling me to take legal actions against him and i even said i have a doubt whether he won his leagues fairly or not and himself trying to create a Team Rocket 2 and want me there to which he was infuriated and said to look up who he was which is from there his things were known and then he was still saying things to which i said just spit it out,and he said that i mingled with his girlfriend,but as soon as he said that i myself told him if she was still your girlfriend and has been with me then just forget her and save himself and that its not my fault that people like him or his girlfriend would throw themselves at my door..which rather infuriated him even more and he threatened me that if i wasn't a coward then he'll like to meet me privately just before the final matchday for a one on one..i politely said i'll oblidge but if i feel a physical threat,i won't mercy anybody present and they'll be handed over to

Elite4..so he was pushed back a bit but being a 2 league champ thought why not and he had an emotional drive...Mist,i respect the man still and that's why i told you what i told you about him...sweety,I was who I was then and he of all certainly knew it still was man enough to face me directly atleast..he was a man not an en.. and that's all i want to know cause i might've done the same thing in his position...(hugging Misty firmly,Misty hugs firmly and keeps her head on chest)..but the kid made the mistake of thinking his emotion can topple me of all who has made a fun of a man who managed Mewtwo for 3 years and Arceus for 1 and combined 1 year and was doing everything illegal imagine against me yet i just laughed him off literally...that was his mistake...anyhow,he chooses Slobro and I had Kingler that day,i told Kingler go easy unless you have to and that's all,well Kingler did what he did as he decimated Slobro playfully within 2 minutes,Slobro herself just quitted and it was rather fun for her not a defeat exactly what my bunch do...so he got defeated then the press found out and his identity and created a fuss but i suppressed his name and got it changed so he had been grateful to me and just shook my hands i told him i was only proud to see a real man like him who atleast was man enough to stand up against me for his girlfriend's dignity and said i feel more proud to be from near Cerulian and such men were there,i said his girlfriend was in safe hands and wished him luck but just told him not to get too emotional and lose it when it matters cause i was too well known to all Elite4's and he certainly doesn't want to attract their wrath...he almost cried and said it was his fault he,he just didn't understand the situation and thanked me in many ways and left,but he made me more screwed up after the Serena fiasco months apart cause I soon realized a two time Champ from Cerulian chases after someone like me,the girlfriend is none other than Cerulian Gym leader so i got extremely angry and frustrated that why would that after 3 years still disturb me with in my subconscious feeling well she did get one then dumped me only and then i said well this can be fun,and just about truly started my antics..

(hugging Misty very firmly,smile)...sweety,if i only realized what you were going since the break-up,i would've abducted you long long ago(smile)..i want my souly sweet Mist to always beam...sweety sweety..."

Misty(bit of tears, hugging Ash very firmly,smile) : "that brat came back and said...(crying)"

Ash(smile,hugging Misty firmly) : "sweety,you're Misty Ketchum now..and souly mine"

Misty(smile,bit tears,hugging Ash very firmly) : "yes,i'm souly with my Ash...anyhow,that brat tells me that if he was me he would've never left you and so,i just kicked him out and got very depressed as i thought.."

Ash(smile) : "i know what you thought is has never been never will and in present hasn't...Misty is Ash and Ash is Misty, that's it"

Misty(smile) : "yeah,so i was so angry cause i recalled your behaviour,how you treated me and how these sludges...that really made me depressed..only for you to soul ne up(smile,Ash and Misty keep hugging each other firmly for a few moments)...Ash,but i didn't know he pestered around like that,(smile and frown)we'll have to answer many people at Cerulian..

Ash(irritated) :

"Cerulean!Cerulean,Cerulean,Cerulean! except for my flower there's nothing good there and just last night they proved me right again,and my flower was accidentally there,it could've been Viridian,it could've been Venus as well,Cerulean"

Misty(laugh) : "sorry Ash,but i just love it how you hate my hometown with a particular passion,but you never did before"

Ash(irritated) : "no cause i didn't fully comprehend my cherished flower and thought it would be just like any City,but since then and especially since i now know their infatuation with Sensational Sisters and that Gym,that was your sweat and more tears and i was the tears and they took it for granted,I can't but be delighted now to go there and perform,and no even last evening i wasn't bothered but then they created a fuss there in the shop,they owe a big performance from me and it'll be in the local press where i finally will get my hands at precious Cerulian f.. sorry"

Misty(laugh) : "anyway it's my hometown,just spare it a thought before you reign havoc there"

Ash(smile) : "sorry Mist,but on this one i can't give you any guarantees but as i'll have to also be in that godforsaken place myself i'll spare the Gym..you'll know that i praised the leader to heaven and demoted the support cast at the same Gym to hell,and i'll spare this gym.."

Misty(laugh) : "much appreciated,now continue"

Ash(smile) : "yes,then Lance told me that Misty Waterflower is a famous name throughout Kanto and other places may be as well and that my teenage travel companion Misty and Misty Waterflower, Cerulian Gym leader were two very different persons as if i didn't know it already, he i guess thought i had a teenage crush kinda thing rekindled and probably didn't forget her and due to your condition he thought if he could help (laugh).. I don't get this infatuation of people not letting a person be happy AND single.."

Misty (solemn) : "Ash, i wasn't happy at all, that was the whole reason things started"

Ash : "yeah a mess that almost defeated me had it not been for that day there.. anyhow, he went on and told me about your present state a bit and then said i'll agree that i'll help, to which i said indeed if such is the case i'll be very happy to help my long lost dear friend, which he also agreed but then despite knowing my abilities tried to advise me that you have picked up a bit of a bad name and they suspect you have made your hands dirty with illegal business, as soon as he said illegal, i scoffed that i helped busting Team Rocket and i've had enough experience with illegal things which he said he just cautioned me because he thought i liked that picture but i might get a rude awakening,i politely said if he gives me protection i'll do my maximum but i said please i don't want to hear a word more on the past,present or future Misty Waterflower and I don't like anybody telling me anything about my very long time childhood friends and travelling partners alongside whom i escaped so many deaths and lived multiple many lives-no matter what they've become now,i'd like to not hear it..so then i set things up with Lance,came out for the first week gauged whether i really wanted it or not when i gathered all your informations,then once i knew the answer is yes,went to Kalos the next week to absoluty get my soul's confirmation on me and you that was next week,and then on third returned and i planned on what i shall do contancted my family and all that it took 2 more to settle and then i jumped on you(both laugh) then the next 2 weeks and i've become one with my sweet sweet Misty flower(both smile at each other),but the biggest thing was my infighting and once i won that just the night before i handcuffed you(smile,holding Misty's hands and immitating),from then on i knew i've got you back 50%,full from my part,and the rest depends upon you,which well(both laugh)..kinda obvious(both smile)..so yes, that's how i came back.."

Misty(clap and smile) : "Bravo,no first you saved me second we married third we had to pass a sleepless first night due to hoot-hoots..(laugh)"

Ash(laugh) : "see vulture is a better word"

Misty(smirk) : "Its vulpic,only that you're not allowed to use it"

Ash(smile) : "right(phone rings Violet),right Vulture Time(shows phone,brusts into laughter,Misty shakes her head again)

Ash: "No Mist,go help Mom or take rest here,just want to play a bit with our Viol flower,no its ok she'll be fine,i'm talking all day since yesterday noon,let me get this,later if she wants you can"

Misty(tendering Ash's cheeks) : "don't threaten her,she'll go full mantyke(both laugh) and don't take too much strain"

Ash(smile) : "hellow,Mrs. Violet Waterflower Slate,my honour to speak to you,how may i come into your service?"

Violet(emotional) : "um..Ash,Brock.."

Ash(laugh) : "dear Violet,i just told him that i also was suffering as much for Mist,but wasn't sure and the papers you know infinitely more about their antics than me"

Violet(crying) : "Ash,it was amusing what Brock told me that you said,i should've been there as well.."

Ash(laugh) : "it's ok Violet,if i somehow have come to your service your another Violet-like performance is enough for my consolation if i was ever rude to you or Brock or to anyone here.please take care don't get emotion, it's ok,your my sister-in-law now,we'll have ample time to discuss anything you want...please give your best in your performances without any worries we all are here just do what you do the best"

Violet(sobbing,smile) : "yeah,um..thanks Ash,i'll have to go now,will call Mist as soon as i can take care.."

Ash(smile) : "yeah take care Violet,best wishes"

.....(Misty and Delia downstairs)...

Delia : "dear,you look a bit worn out.."

Misty(smile) : "um..no just too much talking,i'm habituated though Gyms are hard places.."

Delia(points out Misty's ring) : "so happy,Mist,your officially Ketchum now.."

Misty(giggle) : "thanks Mom.."

Delia : "did he fetch that before.."

Misty(bit ashamed) : "yes,Mom that's what he did"

Delia(bit concerned) : "he has changed quite a bit in these 3 years,his language also isn't very polite i can sense.."

Misty(nervously) : "um..yeah a bit rough..he's just a bit tired but won't stop working"

Delia(concerned) : "well,he surely knows how to scare people"

Misty(smile) : "that i have to agree with"

Delia(smile) : "Mist,when are you going out today?"

Misty : "um..you mean date?"

Misty(nervously) : "well..we haven't decided on that yet.."

Delia(frown) : "Mist,is everything all right,you can and infact should be frank you know.."

Misty(laugh) : "i'm sorry mom for laughing,but don't worry at all,he's as sweet as ever,just a bit tired,you know the press hasn't been kind to him,so he still just thinks that he has to logically validate every moment of his life and give his analysis or the result of it to anyone concerned in a rather colourful way that in his mind will give the press a good beat-down"

Delia(smile and concerned) : "i see,no my little Ash never could do anybody any harm but i guess you should get this trash talking checked,it's not at all good"

Misty(smile) : "i'm being right at it but it'll take time,he had just been living a lonely life,it'll just take him some time to come into terms with his new surroundings"

Delia(smile) : "but enough about him,how are you,my little doll?"

Misty(giggle) : "fine mom,just fine"

Delia(looking at Misty's ring holding her hand) : "very beautiful.but Mist,you should take rest as well,you yourself weren't in a good health and much emotion overnight.."

Misty(smile) : "i'm fine mom,i've had too many sleepless nights because of the Gym and other things,i'm habituated like that for the past 10 years,rather last night was the best sleepless night till date"

Delia(smile) : "happy to know my little doll,but um..Ash might also not be prepared to take you out for a dinner because he thinks that the press.."

Misty(laugh) : "um..sorry for laughing mom,but it's just the effects of his antics throughout the night..i've been entertained beyond imagination,but no he has refused to take me out on a date or to dance or giving me a flower bouquet-refusal in all accounts"

Delia(very concerned) : "my God!..what's the matter.."

Misty(laughing) : "he would rather run away with me to unknown destinations"

Delia(smile) : "too much imagination(Misty bursts into laughter),besides Mist,he's fine at home."

Misty(smile) : "mom,its just that press bug that's bitten him for such a long time and to such an extent,he just can't yet get over it,so thats his definition of complete solitude"

Ash(outside) : "Mom,food,and overwork that little Mimey of yours, don't let my Mist work,she's...um,i just want her with me here right now"

Delia(smile) : "also my Mist too, remember that,and leave Mimey alone"

Ash(irritated) : "mom,please,but,if you don't allow me to um..well..gaze at my Mist all i want,then i'll get Mime to battle,there you little brat.."

Delia(frown) : "Ash, that's impolite,and leave Mimey right now."

Ash(wrestling with Mime,comes near) : "Mime is pestering me ever since..why you little brat, you're no good for..mom where's my food"

Misty(surprized) : "where are you going?"

Delia(taking Mime away,scowl&frown) : "Ash wait there in the table,Mist will take both of your foods,and don't runaway with Mist so quickly(laugh)"

Ash(dissapointed) : "yeah,so you've decided that i should be away from Mist.."

Delia(frown,comes to Ash) : "what's wrong with you honey?calm down, your always too agitated,too active all the time,Mist is coming,let her prepare the dishes.."

Ash(irritated,sitting) : "Mist come quickly,and why can't Mime prepare the dishes and no i'm a bit excited and yes,i'm going to the farm?"

Delia(frown) : "Ash,just wait here be calm honey,i've got to ask you something"

Misty (comes with dishes) : "here are the..(Ash tries to take off the dishes and hug Misty)

Ash,what are you.."

Delia(frown) : "Ash.."

Ash(hugging Misty) : "ah! that's what i wanted,no a bit later.."

Misty(scoffs) : "Ash,mom is here its rude!"

Ash(hugging Misty) : "no if you hug me back,i'll not say a thing while i'm at the table,and mom being here makes no difference, it's not a vulgar st.."

Misty(hugging Ash quickly,then scoffing) : "that's it.Ash,are you out of your mind?calm down,don't make a fuss"

Ash(sitting down) : "no i'm done,will eat very slowly and sorry mom and Silence"

Delia(frown) : "Misty,just sit down honey"

Misty : "yeah,just these things.."

(finally everyone sits down)

Delia(observing Ash) "Mist,can you tell me something,I don't know much about training and battling but i do know Mimey more than anyone,what is wrong with Ash?"

Ash(scowl) : "Mom your not insin..um,sorry suggesting that.."

Misty(angry,shouts) : "Ash!just eat silently!"

Delia(very concerned) : "Mist,please,why is he behaving like this,and no it's not just now since the day he has returned,he's been like that,Mimey's too excited all the time and wants to play around so does Ganger and those two,Pikachu seems pretty indifferent to Ash,what is it?these Dark Types aren't good Ash,you know.."

Misty : "mom,please calm down i'll explain everything..no Ash,not you and you're not leaving till i'm finished,Pikachu,come to Misty,baby(Pikachu jumps to Misty),right,and No Ash you're staying silent"

Delia(bit shivering voice) : "Mist.."

Misty(smile) : "Mom,we don't have anything to hide from you but it's a kind of a trade secret..he's a very special trainer and hence he's so important to the world.."

Ash(scoff) : "Mist is in.."

Misty(frown) : "Ash"

Ash(grim) : "very well,but mention yourself,she doesn't know"

Misty(frowns at Ash,back to Delia,smiling) :

"Mom,he has unbelievable powers over pokemons,he can instantly gauge them and if he so wants get attuned to their nerves and the whole combination then becomes very efficient in battling,and those like Mime,who've been with him for 17 years,and you know Mime too is a Psychic type thus can be extremely powerful if she wants to be-but just like she and Ganger,Noivern and Gerninja,Ash's nerve's state affects them a bit"

Delia(concerned) : "um..Mist,that doesn't seem to be a very good thing cause then the viseversa is true too,is it like an obsession?"

Misty(smile) : "exactly the opposite,Ash's own nature is getting reflected in Mime and all them and as you rightly pointed out the viseversa and Pokemons, they are like what they are, Pikachu is an exception due to his own temperament and he can't be automatically affected just by Ash's presence, he has to be warmed up, so he's indifferent it seems and he's also able to catch Ash's nerve states independently, he's just irritated with him that he's always playful and not battling anymore, Pikachu is a once ever pokemon himself.. see mom i myself have two such pokemon, one Golduck and a Gyarados and i can affect pokemons too but they won't show visible characteristics like this because my temperament is different to Ash and so are our pokemons and powers, i'll show you Golduck later, it's just trade secret as we call it, it's very selected people in this world can do this successfully and this power might be abused as well thus the secrecy but the trainers at this level if it comes naturally, like Ash had automatically come to know this, in fact now this

Pikachu alone is enough to mat some 50 other Pikachus who've won 4 leagues and 20 Pikachus who have won 6 or 7,like Ash has,Pikachu can alone face the whole Elite 4 and their Pikachus at one time and still has a very good chance of beating them,and i think i know,though he may still deny that Ash is The Only living Pokemon trainer in this world,that are at his level,he can hold sway over any opponents at will,there can be other pokemon trainers who has a special power over only his or one specific type of pokemons but Ash can do it to anybody and even hold his own againt legendaries,given he's mind is focused and he wants to face them,if Ash wishes he can even tame Legendary Pokemons for some times and even get them to battle for him,Ash is unmatched in terms of Mastery over Pokemons given he is focused and ready with a clear mind that really wants to battle of Master over a pokemon and that's why he's so sought after.But with his natural sweetness (blush)..um..he doesn't want to battle or do extraordinary things and wants to play around like pokemons with his own pokemons and even other people in general giving him the character that he is showing now(laugh)..um.sorry mom,but he is an unique being in this world as long as the very name Pokemon is concerned(smile)"

Ash : "and Mist is.."

Misty(frown) : "Ash,please,just stay silent"

Delia(bit flustered) : "um..well..i see but he must be lonely.."

Ash(brusting into laughter) : "umm..sorry,of course in a way he was lonely but now (smile) i've my flo(Misty frowns)..umm,now i'm married so it's ok, (scowl) but when too lonely,which by the way i would if you or Mist don't bear with me and my now much beloved language,then i'll become more playfull and so would Mimey,so you see i have a deal.."

Misty(frown) : "Ash,stop that, don't talk like this with mom"

Ash(grim) : "but..i'm not harm.."

Delia(smile) : "no honey,you never can but are you not going to obey your mommy because your all powerfull now?"

Ash(blush,solemn) : "mom,what the..?you know what i'm.."

Delia(smile) : "absolutely honey,i do,just remember that press will not be after you unless you wish them too and even if the press is around you still don't have to give rigourous motives behind your each actions get it?

Ash(grim, dissapointed) : "yes mom."

Delia : "are you dissapointed with that?"

Ash(beaming) : "nope."

Delia(smile) : "that's my sweet boy.by the way,and no not you Ash cause you won't have any control over your language as you're too excited,Mist will herself briefly say about her success with Pokemons"

Ash : "huh! then basically i should.."

Misty and Delia unison(smile) : "silence"

Ash(grim) : "fine"

Misty(smile) : "um,mom i've also been accepted into Water Gym Leader's hall of fame and like him i'm also among the top.."

Ash : "most"

Misty(frown) : "Ash, didn't we agree that you'll be silent?"

Delia(sternly) : "Ash, don't pester her(Ash and Misty laughs). say Mist"

Misty : "um..yeah,i'm also among the top water pokemon trainers and Gym leaders in Kanto"

Ash : no i'll interrupt every time,she IS THE,no please Mist,bear with me,please.."

Delia(smile) : "ok Mist,i'll bear with his language,besides i must know what my little doll has done too(Misty blushes and smile),please Mist,this time, let's just bear with him together,but Ash,if you cross the line,i'll not listen to you for this entire day"

Ash(sticking his tongue out to Misty) : "yeah!"
(everyone bursts into laughter)

Ash(smile) : "Mist is currently THE TOPMOST water pokemon gym leader in THE WORLD but i'm having to add may be as otherwise the vultures will insinuate that(Delia and Misty shake their heads)(smiling) yeah, that's my eloquence(Delia,Misty both laugh)...anyhow,the vultures will insinuate that there are 7 godd..um..sorry..7 regions in this world where things are vastly different,Cerulian,a name that i'm not too..(Misty frowns) dissapointed about(Misty laughs) as it's associated with my flower(Delia a bit puzzled,then smiles,Misty blushes),yeah that her(pointing to Misty,Delia understands and smiles)being a seaside city,its kinda easy,kinda natural,kinda understandable,kinda taken for granted that the Gym,if there is one,will be a Water Pokemon gym and if Pallet had a water pokemon Gym then suddenly to the vultures it becomes a problem that because the Geography is different,so is Pokemon and so the trainers are a bit different,bit varied,bit(Delia and Misty laughs)not similar,but i've been everywhere,i've never seen a 17 year old kid being able to handle a Gyarados to the extend where she made it like Mime is to you mom,at the age of 17 and that too withing 6 or 7 months after she alone had to tame it(Misty blushes)cause some godf..umm..she tamed it like you've with mime in 4 months and on 6th month attained a legendary status(Misty,blush,trying to stop Ash,Delia smiles),no i won't stop till i show how unique you are(Misty blushes again)..her Gyarados could use flamethrower as good as my Charizard could and you know him then,i still can't beat her Gyarados one on one and she had all the power over it at the age of 17,and on that day if she challenged me,all of my then present pokemons including Pikachu(Pikachu woders)would've lost not even giving Gyarados a mere scratch(Misty blushes and shakes her head,smiling)and that day Mist looked so..um.. (Misty blushes after smirking at Ash,Delia smiles)looked great with Gyarados and absoluty single handedly turned a god..um..not so reputes Gym of Cerulian to a legendary gym like far bigger than Viridian(Misty blushes,Delia pats Misty)..yeah..but(frown)the godforsaken Cerulian vultures(Delia and Misty frowns)..no i'll say how they don't want to give my flower the crown that is only her's..(Delia smiles and pats a blushing Misty)..those Cerulian buffoons who yesterday had the audacity to imply to me that i've deceitfully abducted Their flower,but the thing is that she's MY FLOWER(Misty turns her head down blushing,Delia smiles and hugs her)(smile) and the touble was that they would rather clap her to death than to help her to stand and then they.."

Delia(sigh) : "Ash, it's about Mist,not your vultures.."

(Misty shakes her head)

Ash(smile) : "right,my dear sweet flower can push her Gyarados now to a level which she told you about and then this Gyarados isn't her strongest Pokemon at all,it is Golduck and Dewgong and Starmie,who she had at like 1 year birthday present.."

Misty(blush,smile) : "5"

Ash(smile) : "right,5 year present,and there are many more,Mist can hold sway over any water pokemons including my own and i'll be beaten left,right and centre against her in any battle unless i use Pikachu as she is unbeatable by eater,grass,flying,dark,fire,rock and psychic types(Misty again turns her head down blushing and Delia beams,cajoling Misty)..so the vultures finally were about to budge as they would've abjectly humiliated themselvs otherwise but the hallowed Cerulian City for the love of God never bothered,they wanted more and more and everyday every hour there would be this damn arrogant brat who'd challenge only to show(Delia frowns and Misty laughs) that he was a once ever failure as a celebrated boy scout or girl cheerleader(Delia scowls and Misty frowns)..no let me continue..(both shakes their heads)..but my flower still had to appease those brats by giving them a badge and fighting them, this badge they got will be the only ever in their god damn lives and thus my flower was getting drained more and more mentally and physically and all that the all caring idiotic Cerulian might was doing was to cheer her slow death."

Delia(solemn) : "Mist, i heard you weren't well, but this really was too much.."

Misty(smile) : "mom, you know he's just exaggarating, i'm fine now, and no had he been there at this form of his(laugh)..um..sorry(Delia laughs)..(smile)..i wouldn't have needed to work or perform at all, money would've poured into the Gym simply by this rate of trash talk even with the wife and mother in this language(Delia shakes head, Ash laughs), long live the vultures Ash, really" (Misty and Delia brusts into laughter)

Ash(smile) : "good break, thanks for the refreshments Mist, and this will be long"

(Misty and Delia again brusts into laughter)

Ash(smile) : "then there was the king of brats in the neighbouring Frontier Symbol,which i'm just too tired to explain but mom remember the job offer that i rejected ? this is this Battle Frontier's gym.anyhow this brat conspiring with our well known Cerulian all-knowers, tried to defame my little flower there but then as i've told you,my flower is strong enough to topple any goddamn weed pretending to be trees,and so this frontier Symbol had to be put over my sweet flower(Mist blushes),which she barely was able to manage as it's like two gyms in one building and you can understand the workload that my flower had to bear alone and then the Cerulian brats quadrupled um with this(both laughs)and finally came with a new plan,they were sending..Mist this will become personal"

Misty(grim) : "Ash, just give it a break,would you?"

Delia(concerned) : "what did they do to her Ash?"

Ash(solemn) : "Mist, you're seeing my moods but mom needs to know,she has an idea about both of us,though she.."

Delia(scoff) : "Ash,are you.."

Misty(sigh) : "not again,Ash,i'm not going to listen (hugs Delia)"

Ash(solemn) : "Mom,you've taught me to be honest with myself first,you want a bit of that today?"

Delia(frown) : "i understand,yes,Mime, don't allow anyone in at any cost no matter who,Mist,dear you're too tired go to my room and have a nap..you too Pikachu just protect the house but don't go overboard(Mime and Pikachu leaves)Mist..no on doll your're too tired..(Delia takes Misty to her room and returns)"

Delia(frown) : "Mist is my child just like you and has been for 17 years in my mind no matter what and you know the best i don't have any reservations about her,but if you're so bent on proving your points to everyone,then say,and Mist told me to tell you that and i say i too its the last time you'll ever repeat this"

Ash(solemn) : "MOM,i got you.it'll be done as you say,mom.right,Mom you know about Serena and you also know i was kissed accidentally in public,these were accidents and before them there was one and that was the first for us both-me and Mist-that was the only time i did that on my own wish as her wish also matched mine.Mist has ever cherished me almost from the first sight as have I and you know all of it,but..this is funny and please bear with me..then the vultures started to peek around me especially after the Sinnoh Miracle,as you know and no i didn't cheat on her but my ego swelled a bit too much and eventually we separated,the real fun starts now,so the Cerulian brats came up with a particular plan that now since my flower was a bit depressed and alone,these would circulate over and you know mom,the irony is that i wasn't there at all,i was in heaven,well according to vultures,anyhow,both she was mentally tortured beyond measures by the vultures and they were circling around me as well but while i could travel around she was confined to her gym and show and thus vultures got a way bigger grip on her than they ever could or will get over me,then you know we broke up and we took the same measure in different froms,she continued to withdraw herself,i continued to attack them..the only thing was that i was moving around so i in a way was in a much more favourable condition,which um well.. helped me to anticipate if anybody wanted to fall for me,and to cut the long story short,you're seeing that except for my flower none did bear with me through hell and you also know what hell i'm talking about(Delia frowns,solemn) she has been hearing me spit this out to whoever that dared to challenge me and my flower yesterday(Delia frowns)-no it was Brock,Lillie and Daisy,all family-got thrown at some choised logic mercilessly by me,but it hurts her,no only Daisy,Tracy,Brock and Violet got this, they're all family,so it's not that the vultures can do anything about or with it...i know my mom but it's just to keep you informed what did happen-yesterday i insulted Mist like i could never dream myself and did that again and again and again and again she came back with the hope that we can reconcile.Mom,i've seen may b..um,sorry,people but her devotion to me for no reason at all made me submit to her and she will go through any hell for me because all i had ever done was to tender my dying Pikachu after i borrowed her cycle-as you know the story-i didn't speak with her very gently,i haven't done anything good to her in 17 years and still she for some reason won't ever leave me no matter who and where i'm in whatever conditions may it be just for no reason except that she cherishes me since that very first meeting when both of us were mere kids.and that's exactly what she was ever even after our breakup,when the Cerulian brats were hovering around and after sometimes Mist just couldn't take anymore and it shut herself up in her room and only attending to pokemon and overworking to the ultimate all the while burning inside just for no reason but because i never came back after i broke up and it turned into a severe depression much to the joy of those brats and my little flower was dying a slow and miserable death all because she was hoping i'll come back someday, and finally i returned but yet tortured her yesterday to every hell i could imagine but she refused to let go off me but as soon as i smiled and put a gentle hand over her shoulder you can see the overnight change in her and all she did while she herself is a legend and so many great men would die to be her but she was only ever going to be mine. i've not ever been kind to her except leaving her high and dry yet she is stubbornly following me even since she first saw me and would do so..so if you ever heard anything that the vultures told through their media about me believe all of it was far better than what i was actually being, but as far as your daughter goes, you can as well treat it as a mere dust particle on the most precious diamond.i don't need to tell you whether i reciprocate my flowers feeling for me to her or not,and thus the all conquering Cerulian brats and their master the vultures just abjectly failed in another endeavour.but they'll be at it again but the only thing is that next time i'll be there too,anyhow, that's the story"

Delia(scowl) : "i see.."

Ash(laugh) : "mom,please i didn't tell it to the press it's all family and that's my power Mist was talking about."

Delia(frown,scowl) : "power as in.."

Ash(sigh) : "my power is that i'll trash talk people and tell them such bare truths,verbally or mentally that the honesty of me if there is then will connect with them and their pokemons even if i don't use any pokemons at all,and then if i want i can do anything with their own pokemons all i want and in the battle it'll mean if you had Mimey and i came without any pokemons,10 such Mime's won't cop with me cause they'll want to play with me all the time and be my pokemon rather,and this is when i'm not having any pokemons myself at all,so what to speak if i have 84 absolutely best trained pokemons myself? thus i can make people tell the absolute truth cause i had to face it from close stare and this if able to help you good,if not my bad.Mist has the same powers in a bit dormant state but her temperaments is different so she can never do what i'm upto,she van never do the antics i've been doing over the last year or so in public,i know many more things but my only weapon is that and you already know it as do Pikachu,Mime and so on,i took my flower through it,and my flower follows me no matter what so i had to pick her up from the godforsaken Cerulian City's goddamn Gym and now has put here at my home.this is where i live,my flower now is family.the end"

Delia(frown) : "i get you,but your process is only good for vultures,and yes go to Mist now"

Ash(smile) : "right.(going to Misty,Misty sitting on bend,hugging Misty,Misty hugs Ash back) there there Mist,you want to hear the flower song again no which was mine not Cerulian"

Misty(giggle,blush,breaking the hug) : "later"

...(Mr Mime comes in)..

Delia(frown) : "Mimey who is it? didn't i tell you none allowed?"

Mr Mime :

Ash(irritated) : "For the Love of God!Tracy!Tracy,Tracy,Tracy,Tracy,this name has pesterint me me for 15 years whenever i'm with my flower...i'm killing him today absolutely,Pikachu thunder chair.."

Delia(concerned) : "Ash.."

Misty(smile) : "Mom,he has to mean it..."

...(Pikachu doesn't allow Tracy to enter)...

Tracy : "um..Ash.."

Ash(hugging Misty) : "i'm busy with Mist,get off or else.."

Tracy : "Ash,please it's Golduck"

Misty : "um..Ash i should go.."

Ash : "i'm going too"

Delia(concerned) : "don't hit him"

Ash : "don't send Mime,i'll hit both then"

Delia(self) : "nah!had it not been for Mist,he would've gone mad completely(smile) that's actually what he is expressing to Mist..(smile).."
.....(outside)...

Misty(takes Golduck) : "thanks Trace.(leaves)"

Tracy : "Mi.."

Ash : "hey!hey you en.. Shut the f.. up!don't ever call my wife, don't ever talk to her,don't ever pester her, don't ever come anywhere near her,don't ever look at her, don't ever.."

Tracy(laughing) : "Ash,man you need rest.."

Ash(smile) : "sweet sweet Trace,i need rest,right?"

Tracy(concerned) : "um..ok,i get it but you're only making it more and more.."

Ash(scowl) : "tell me Trace why is it exactly that the vultures aren't around here today?"

Tracy : "um..i'm leaving..(trying to flee) "

Ash(releases Noivern) : "right Trace stand in front of me,yeah here(recalls Noivern,Pikachu jumps onto Ash's lap)see Pikachu doesn't exactly like you..so it's better that you comply"

Tracy : "this is pure blackmailing.."

Ash(angry) : "you f.. shut the f.. up.who called me in the middle of the night to torment my already stressed Mist up even more.."

Tracy (smile) : "Ash,Misty will forgive me but you were.."

Ash(extremely angry) : "so when are you releasing my speech to international vul.."

Tracy(grim) : "Ash,please.."

Ash(angry) : "the silver screen,the radio,the tv,the internet,the gramophone,the godforsaken mobile.."

Tracy(laugh) : "we won't be able to express it in front of.."

Ash(angry) : "My wife?right?my wife?huh? what is exactly Trace that everyone is concerned suddenly so much about my wife,huh?what do you want? do you want to see whether she truely longs for me or not if i'm just going to choke.."

Tracy(solemn) : Ash,please,be patient"

Ash(brusts into anger,but not high pitch) : "No i wont,what can you do about it?what can any goddamn vulture do about it? the press,the cinema,the internet,the godforsaken Elite4,the roads.. s.,the most beautiful enu.."

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash get into the Hall of Fame formally and just don't get into farming."

Ash(grim) : "cause Misty..no,what is it that now you're so concerned about,huh,Trace?,no let me finish..what would my wife lose with those not being done? that's you point ain't it?"

Tracy : "Ash,Misty.."

Ash(frown) : "that's it.it's always been Ash AND Misty.that's it Ash and Misty. all rest like you en..were there and blah,blah,blah,beautiful b.. has come and gone,f.."

Tracy : "Ash,please spare these for another day,you're going to Cerulian or stay.."

Ash(frown) : "so your saying that according to the vultures,the husband should enjoy gay f.."

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash,take rest and let me go please or talk about pokemons"

Ash(grim) : "no i'll tak about anything with you if only you don't drag Mist in and more importantly,what is it Trace huh?you want me to show you that my ge.."

Tracy(shout) : "Ash! please, don't tourture youself like this and..oh no.."

Ash(laugh) : "my wife? isn't it? my wife? why and how..no if you dare leave or stop me,i'll set you on Thunder Chair immediately...what is it that people are infatuated with Mist,huh?yes,she has a less black skin,yes she's less at bay with battles,yes she's less unfamiliar in hall of less mediocrity? and? i know what they're thinking but I can be brutal as well,you still can't..no i don't care and nobody comes anywhere near me if i'm home,else they know the result..get over the fact that how can a sweet flower like that wasn't picked up by someone other than the f.."

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash! could you doubt yourself if you heard those words in the middle of.."

Ash(laughing) : "words?"

Tracy : "exactly not Ash,that was your.."

Ash(angry) : "not this dumbnut again,ITS ME,not mine,and so now i've pulled off a stunning publicity stunt,on one side to blindfold the family and on the hand hand to get all over the very next b.."

Tracy : "Ash,they are none except Misty for you."

Ash(laugh) : "so you've finally been able to get around the fact that if a Rhyhorn f.. someone else's sl.."

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash,please,would you argue with me without these words?"

Ash(smile) : "most gladly"

Tracy(smile) : "well,same as yesterday,staring 1.what you see in Misty that you don't see in others?"..

Ash(angy) : "i'm warning you last time Trace,my Mist is not a selling product,if you are insinuating..if anybody.. now that's it,from exactly this moment on,if,especially a half-grown en.. like you,manages two words with Mist,I won't be able to restrain myself but to personally make sure he that doesn't go home alive.."

Tracy : "Ash,this is your sketch..(hands over the sketch)"

Ash(looking at the Sketch) : "thanks

Trace.but..umm(bit shocked)hey(smile)hand me over the other ones,Trace"

Trace(taken aback) : "Ash"

Ash(smirk) : "Green,Rudy and Georgio and there's more,i'm personally going to erase all of those godforsaken names that you're hiding behind your fake smile.."

Tracy(forcefully hugging Ash) : "Ash,please for her,stop killing yourself like this slowly,she doesn't know the end result that you.."

Ash(laugh) : "for her?for her? Trace you tell me, except her sisters does she ever had anyone else? huh?no,no i need to understand this infatuation that Brock has had atleast the courage to honesty present in front of me,and i'm as you know,would ever be most happy if i could atleast,atleast with my these own very hands killed just ONE vulture from a group who insinuates that i'm the BEST choice that my..no you've crossed limits(Ganger,Noivern,Geninja)Nivy(Forcefully),take Pikachu with you,(Very Sternly)Pikachu!buddy!tell professor Oak to send over all pokemons i've ever had and all those who wants to be present with me now..."

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash,stop him"

Ash(smile) : "(gently)see Pikachu,that he's a coward,(Pikachu is extremely Agitated as are the others,Ash tenders Pikachu,cajoles others,Mr Mime joins in,also agitated)just a sec Trace,just go in and(sternly) tell Mist and Mom,to not go to my room,i'm meeting you there,tell Mist,if you care for her so much,that i've ORDERED her to remain downstairs(sternly)do as i say,i have to manage my buddies,and cancel all your goddamn meetings,tell Gary i'm not in a good mood,and.."

Delia(frown) : "Ash"

Ash(concerned) : "Mom i've never demanded anything from you that you couldn't give me but if you can please ride on Nivy and(Misty comes out,with solemn Face and closely observes Ash just for a few moments)Mist,dear this has to be done you've heard me,I'm a Playboy, it's not easy with my kind,besides(laugh) it's only my first day,bare today,and no mom,i wont say things that i promised i wouldn't and Mist,your're safe(sternly) NOW.."

(Misty frowns at Tracy and then drags Delia to Noivern)

Misty(whispering into Delia's Ears) : ""Mom! just a false alarm,play along!"

Delia(stunned) : "but..ok"

Ash : "Pikachu,i'm fine buddy(sternly)go with Mom,Mr Mime,calm down..no nothing will happen, he's my friends only,Ganger stay alert,Mime,i want all things to be precise,never disturb me and Tracy and Gerninja,go to my room,Pikachu obey mom and Misty.come on Trace."

Misty(sternly) : "Trace,i've got Golduck back mind that,and I won't lose my Ash and my heaven at any cost,no mom it's ok,it happens we're as we were saying,just a bit stressed,Pokemons are under fine control,Ash,you want Starmie?"

Ash(smile) : "i'm fine Mist,its only Trace,just go have your lunch,Trace will be held up here today,just take care of Daisy,come on Trace..what you're afraid of ME?ASH?No(sternly) Mime you too GO to the LAB,NOW,Nivy don't lose track of Mime.(sternly)ALL that are going FOLLOW MISTY and MOM,absolutely.GO."

(Misty leaves with Delia,Noivern,Pikachu,Mr Mime)
(in Ash's Room,with only Gerninja,Ganger just outside house door, invisible)

Tracy : "Ash,that was you ultimate urgency call.."

Ash(laugh) : "the most trivial false alarm and my Mist picked it up just as she saw me, aren't we forever a couple,Trace,Huh? What you think we're

BEST or RIGHT for each other only don't you?
(solemnly)Trace,Pikachu of all surely wouldn't have spared himself if it really were a true ultimatum and wouldn't have listened to even me as that was my order..Trace my real Ultimatum is that we fight till we die, individually that is,the reason for that will not appear in this life of Mine,UNLESS someone tried to be too interested in 3 things-mom and her pokemons,any of my own Pokemons or Mist and her pokemons,Pikachu have already picked up the third and i never needed to utter in words or repeat an assertion to him-and you shall by now know all of it,relax i know my bunch,Gerninja,stay sittid faceing the door and don't look back till i tell you to,right,you've created a mess Trace,no hand me your pokeballs(Marill,Syther)hellow,join Gerninja and do as she's doing till i tell you anything else,make sure door is locked(both comply)see Trace, your own pokemons will not obey you and i'm not even using any pokemon and Marill's been your for may be 20 or more years,you wanted to know why i'm the BEST,this is for the most trivial part-Ability"

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash,i'm telling you,you speak all you want,i only supply infoes"

Ash(smile) : Trace,just hand over.."

Tracy(solemn) : "Ash,they had been thrown to the hottest fire a long long time ago"

Ash(smile) : "Trace tell me-are you afraid of me? do i look sinister or am i more like a playboy?no really tell me."

Tracy(sigh,hugs Ash) : "Ash,i know what your thinking as well,none can"

Ash(laugh,breaks embrace) : "be better than,right?"

Trace,why did you draw those in the first place,Trace you know what i know,and no it's just not trash talk but i can do it most politely too,i just love this,i call it the vulture style,i won't be alive would i if i don't do these?"

Tracy(solemn) : "you know Misty was our heart-throb,despite having you,you were never here,she changed her sisters,she was ashtonishingly good with the gym,a true epitome of perfection in battles or performance-she was the ever sweet sister for Me and Gary and later Brock,when he was back,but Ash,this is your own home,if you want, especially now.."

Ash(laugh) : "so all you could do was to backstab me,right?

Tracy(solemn) : "Ash,please,you know.."

Ash(solemn) : "i do know one thing surely.You know Trace in this very room i was telling Mist a few hours back the exact same thing,but before that do you want to know why i actually suddenly came back?"

Tracy : "Ash,you two were.."

Ash(smile) : "BEST,right?(laugh)Trace,stop it,please and don't interrupt me and listen.

(solemn)I came back cause of an event after my Kanto Elite4 was over,the dinner party at night,there,something happened and i was suddenly morally assigned to rescue the Cerulian

City Gym Leader, had it been some other chances, (grave) I wouldn't have ever returned (laugh) you can't imagine that I would ever accuse anyone here of backstabbing, could you? Trace bear with me, (very angry) that's my definition for what you were up to. Trace, I decided to take my bunch off from Oak Lab, be at Hoenn or Sinnoh, cause I just wanted to relax start a new life far away, with maybe if by chance some na.. sl.. as you think I was doing since Unova and now that I wasn't keeping contacts I was doing even more so, (sternly) Trace, I know what was happening with each of your own personal lives and (very concerned) look at Me (forcefully shakes Tracy) I'm only happy and nothing else for the choices you or Gary or Brock or anybody has made.. no, I do know, Trace, but don't interrupt me else the result won't be good and that's the final time I'm saying this... (sternly) Trace you know my current position and that in I wanted I could've got much better women than MISTY WATERFLOWER and if she wanted she could get much better men than ASH KETCHUM..(sternly)i'll set your own pokemons on you,if you're not listening with pinpoint mindfulness-i would've offered my mom to come,but it's her choice,i heard how Misty was doing before as you know the newses..(bit grave)my Mist was slowly DYING a very..anyhow,i paid no attention at all,but then i had to come back and then suddenly my feelings are rekindled and so are we and upto the point where i've even given a ring and she has made the BEST CHOICE,(smile)that's exactly the problem ain't it Trace,Ash Ketchum is suddenly back with Misty Waterflower and the vultures can't quite figure this one out or handle it,that too an overnight marriage-am i wrong Trace?"

Tracy(sigh): "Ash,no the past tense is gram.."

Ash(smile) : "Grammar,indeed,grammar.

(sternly)when Lance,who knew me when i was traveling with Misty Waterflower,whoose now the devil and i'm the supposed saviour and by the way it pains me to say,but i must,you travelled with me in Orange,did i bed anyone?no still i'm warning you don't drag Mist's name ever into this, i won't ever be able to listen to anything like that about my Mist and this is about me,not her,mind that.i didn't bed around in upto Sinnoh,now tell me Trace because of my behaviour,and it was not right and i'll be the first to admit but in Unova i still hadn't broken up and that (sternly) means no matter how much even if i wanted to,i wouldn't bed around,but about the last Month of my then relationship with Misty or may be the last two weeks or hell may be the Last 5 day,but why 5 wjy not(extremely agitated) THE LAST DAY? Trace,i won't repeat this question again and if you don't answer,you know what can happen to you..who was that f.. sinister b... that came out as i was entering the main lawn,i didn't recognize him or bother about him-he looked just like any ordinary man,but i you see can if i want i will find the b... out and his mentors and erase them by themselves withing next 30 to 40 hours by faking accidents and accidents,you know i had to be with team rocket,so i know these and would love to apply them even once and that too especially on those f..b..Trace,i'm hungry,really,i so,so want to meet those 3,so much,but i'm not greedy Trace..but i plead with you,Trace,please,please,Trace,give me the most beautiful b...,Trace,i beg of you..please.."

Tracy(sigh) : "Green"

Ash(broad smile) : "right! no i would and do and will forgive him everyday and you know why,i would even forgive Brock,i don't talk about Misty's family,they're free to go around and themselves had too much to deal with,Gary never mingled into this though he desperately wanted to,his professionalism won't allow him,but the single person i won't easily forgive is(pointing at Tracy,extremly concerned)-YOU."

Tracy(solemn) : "on the charge that i didn't do anything despite knowing full well what exactly was Misty's trouble?"

Ash(smile) : "you're that one brat that knew about our bond by heart from the very first day we met all those 15 years back,Trace,you'll always be her very own flesh and blood,the brother that she so much wanted beside her especially after she returned to the gym..what did she do?"

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash,during Unova,when news started to pick up the steam,she would whenever find me alone,just sob - "give my Ash back,Trace,he can't stay without me",it continued for a bit and almost everyday you weren't there,something was happening..then um..we had given up on you and.."

Ash(very concerned) : "Trace,i didn't need Misty,neither did Misty need me,we could've moved on,we both were extremely successful in our careers and had everything at our plate,she reached that level way before i did,but you said you had given up on me,right?did she follow suit?"

Tracy : "no"

Ash(sternly) : "ever?"

Tracy : "she was puzzled all along till you broke into her room forcefully like.."

Ash(sternly) : "i know what i did Trace,you tell me one thing that is I didn't need Misty anymore cause i had found a better life,THUS i had cast her off like a worn out tin can,was that the assumption?"

Tracy : "no"

Ash : "then it was just that i had sucked the life out of her for my neutrition and once i was famous i was done threw her away?this then?"

Tracy : "no"

Ash : "she was my childhood crush and on some glorious godforsaken day,i suddenly woke up from my teenage slumber,beaming with my youthful realization that Misty was JUST AN infatuation and along with the fact that me being so single minded in my career pursuits were only always a good friend but NOT BEYOND to all?"

Tracy : "um.. pretty close"

Ash(sternly) : "Trace,i'll ask you two questions,1.who broke up from whom?
2.why was this Green guy so interested in me?"

Tracy(sigh) : "1.none of you broke up.

2.he understood the first."

Ash(bursts into laughter) : "so he went on that day to evsdrop on me but Misty wasn't in the mood to tolerate him,thus he couldn't help.Trace that's what infatuation is,Green was devoted to Misty because she was his dream,he finished Orange and is a very successful man,Mist just never cared about anyone but just like me would tolerate and that guy was never impolite to anybody.. beautiful man.. beautiful, beautiful man..beau.."

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash,please,he was the first to admit his infatuation to us all as soon as he came back from meeting you and just left,Misty was confused all along and never knew what exactly to do or feel and this refusal turned her into the actual nerve wreck that she became that she finally thought she was close to erasing you off but just then you again came up with all your glories and she just decided to burn herself to a sinister end"

Ash : "4 years-beautiful man.. beautiful man..that too when i was in bed every night in Kalos NOT alone.. beautiful man,beautiful man"

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash,please stop torturing yourself like this"

Ash(sternly) : "Trace,if you try to stop.."

Tracy(sigh) : "carry on.."

Ash(closed eyes) : "beautiful man beautiful man,comes back from Orange after victory,meets his crush,then understands that he may have a chance but then isn't sure of himself,then moves around back and forth but can't get a hang of it,in the meantime two other man come around similar vein almost but not sure themselves-they were good but less beautiful,and all this due to Mist's utter confusion about everything surrounding her except Pokemons and the Cerulian Brats were constantly pressuring for more,Lillie and Daisy just found their lives and only could be beside her all the time but similarly confused as to what should be done and Violet being Violet-just don't understand anything except her own performances and is so happy to stay just as that,i'm so glad that Brock of all people rescued her,though that brat has a long road left to be travelled with ME..they all really are sensational,really generally such pure souls are not found anywhere and no matter how much dust they catch,they're never ever tainted and none more than you 3 know that but then you thought that this is family and some men were nice and so on..and the men, beautiful man, beautiful man, beautiful man..But all this had to be in a godforsaken city like..anyhow(opening eyes,very sternly and harshly)still i haven't got my answer"

Tracy(sigh) : "if you already know what is was.."

Ash(smile) : "i'm hungry Trace,i'm hungry, (growls)don't dare interrupting me"

Tracy(sigh) : "go on"

Ash(smile) : "sweet,sweet Trace,as my flower went to that true f.. of a gym,she was shoved down a bunch of confusions and so was struggling,then you were called there, didn't you?no i,sweet Ash of Pallet knew but(growl) I,ASH KETCHUM, MASTER PLAYBOY, DEMAND TO KNOW..(sweetly) what did you see?"

Tracy : "she was a miracle worker"

Ash(smile) : "WAS?"

Tracy(sigh) : "AS ALWAYS FOREVER"

Ash(smile) : "right.(scowl)why were those brats entertained?"

Tracy : "um..Ash, it's.."

Ash(growl) : "don't dare utter my flower's name,you'll not go out ever from here alive or dead."

Tracy(sigh) : "fine,fine,its an eventuality and you know very well who i am"

Ash(smile) : "sweet,sweet Trace,was there ever any doubt throughout timeline?"

Tracy : "Unova,12th Badge,that night you said something."

Ash(smile) : "beautiful faces,right"

Tracy : "um.. without any contact before and after for 10 days,then when she asked,just scoffed at her"

Ash(smile) : "did she shout at me?"

Tracy : "um..no she cried to me"

Ash(smile) : "what you did that day did you do the same on the day we broke up?"

Tracy : "um..Das.."

Ash(smile) : "no need,the next time she spoke to you"

Tracy : "yeah i did"

Ash(close eyes) : "then suddenly i had to go undercover and nobody knew my whereabouts barring Elite4 in this whole goddamn world..then how did the thing got outside the godforsaken Cerulian Gym in the first place,sure it wasn't the beautiful man"

Tracy(solemn) : "can i tell you something?"

Ash(close eyes) : "most honoured"

Tracy : "you.."

Ash(shout) : "huh?what was that Trace?i wouldn't ever have reached the level had i always been with her and she even more so,thus i was using her and then threw her away as soon i got what i got right? Trace,confirm it,Trace,these Vultures are really in for a game RIGHT NOW,Trace I haven't battled in ages just fooling around,give me vultures Trace i'm hungry,i want to BATTLE,Trace please, wasn't this what the vultures are insinuating?"

Trace(sigh) : "you never realizes the full implications Ash,as soon as you're back,see all things are in a whisker back to what it should've been,4 years we all had our lives,it was as if the X factor wasn't there, you come back 14 days and you can see what happens,this is what happens you and Misty you two must be together all the time otherwise both your lives will not be right and neither would be that of the association"

Ash(smile) : "Tracy,just stop there,would you?,Tracy,please,(very sternly)I'm not finished,i know what i know but i don't have my answer yet.and unless you give it, you're NOT going out of this room...then kanto Elite4 as they assigned me they said Misty was,Misty had,Misty did-Mist IS.mind that,and i told them that as well that day and they were rather unknown to me and its a month ago at most may be..and they haven't dared to use Past Tense..no it's not grammar,my problem is that i've yet to let her roam freely without me since i've married her yesterday,oh! i get you!you want to know why rush the marriage,may be Green could STILL return..is that the trouble? or is it that last night made an impression that Ash Ketchum was also the Acting Master and wants something out of this which i doubt,so you were happy,but it wasn't because of me,it wasn't because Mist it was because of,what was that name Trace?"

Tracy : "Ash,we all thought Green was the one,he was present that day but i never handed those over to anybody and thats how you know why i had Daisy,she.."

Ash(smile) "sweet sweet Trace,don't give you personal cherished memories to a f.. like me,besides hey i'm dumping Mist tonight only remember?"

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash.."

Ash(smile) : "Trace,i've just figured out what the vultures are getting at..no,don't try pulling any stunts Trace,you know best how great your Syther's blades are..(closed eyes)the Vultures now are trying to land on the Greatest Spot that has been accidentally opened,even more so after last night,this Trace is stupendous,mind blowing.. brilliantly chalked out..Trace,i can envisage them clearly,Trace,i can feel the simmering jubilation among them,so close to their victory,so much is the joy,so much the bliss from the hope that their impending victory is just about to come into fruition,Trace,i can see them around me,just about to grab that spot,their happiness so tangible to me Trace,Trace,answer me please,Trace,i beg of you,Is it possible that this time,this time once more(opens his eyes,smiling),that the vultures be successful in their insinuation that all that i said was emotion,all that i'm made of is emotion, (closed eyes)My heart wrenching longing for my own soul's different form,appearing before me in all glory off which all i ever wanted,want and will want is not to take my eyes off,not to take my eyes off from myself..(opens eyes) that all is emotion and for only a day,till i meet the roads.. s.. again,have a nice day?"

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash,you don't.."

Ash(smile,closed eyes) : "no Trace,i have to,i'm a Playboy remember, it's not easy with my kind,please,let me share with you the joy of the Vultures that they're having now..(open eyes) i put Misty through an emotional roller coaster to weaken her off then jumped onto her and preyed upon her?"

Tracy(sigh) : "You don't have to validate yourself.."

Ash(smile) : "what was that Trace?"

Tracy(deep breath) : "Ash stop logically validating your actions to us.."

Ash(smile) : "Actions" Trace? actions?

Tracy(sigh) : "we know you well enough you never have been able to hide the honesty that has made you into what you are and what you're feeling now we all know Ash, it's just..it pains us to see the strain you take upon yourself to narrate them because you think your Playboy image is what everybody believes in,Ash please,we should be talking about the celebrations.."

Ash(smile and closed eyes) : "no Trace don't stop,my image,Trace i'm a Playboy at heart and my honesty is a show,all that you hear,all that the Vultures insinuate on a moment to moment basis is the real me,i'm not honest,i've cheated my entire life portraying this honesty,this veil so thick my pokemons can never open it nor even my mom,this veil has given me everything,and due to this veil i can take and throw away the Cerulian Heart-throb whenever i wish,i can get in and out of

Hall of Fame at my will,i can hold sway over other people and their pokemons at my leasure, i don't have any feelings for Mist at all i just made her to believe me just like my mom just like everybody else,hell,i've made myself to believe that i'm "AN HONEST MAN"..Trace,this is,Trace so blissfull,this life of deceits,veils,you won't ever know what you truly are...so amusing..so amusing..beautiful, beautiful man, beautiful man..(open eyes) ain't it so Trace?"

Tracy(sigh) : "i've got nothing to say Ash but at this rate Misty will NOT have you alive in this body for long,if you want that just to prove that you'll still want her the only,best of luck with that,but if you die now unable to take anymore of this self inflicted torture,then you know too well what Misty will feel like and especially at this moment of her life,yes she will be wanting you but you could spare her the moment of sadness when doctors are going pronounce today afternoon that Ash Ketchum is no more among us..if you want that best wishes.and i demand you to let me out of this mess to go and tell Misty that you're time is very limited."

Ash(smile) : "Marill..no Trace,she's your pokemon,what would she do to you(Marill observes Tracy for a few Moments and Ash for a few,then silently returns to her place,Syther does the same)?Gerninja(comes up looks far more intensely in Tracy's eyes then returns to her place)..saw that Trace? don't try to leave before the conclusion of this beautiful game,this exquisite insinuation that that Vultures have come up with-what is it called in you book,what i'm doing with Marill?"

Tracy(sigh) : "phychothrombonosis"

Ash(Stern) : "Trace,what am i doing with you?"

Tracy(solemn) : "Lie Detecting"

Ash(rebukes) : "word carefully"

Tracy : "your reading my hidden secrets and hidden traits by self torturing yourself towards death"

Ash(smile) : "what would i gain?"

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash,all you've ever wanted was the Pokemon Master title,you were too clueless to even know what actually you had to do to get to the goal you had set yourself up for,then Misty,your very first travel companion,now your wife.."

Ash(smile) : "sweet,sweet.."

Tracy(deep breath) : "so...um..Misty your forever travelling companion and wife came along and for a time being you wanted Misty.."

Ash(laugh) : "just a bit of a halt here,i wanted what?"

Tracy : "um..you had a feeling for Misty and the only thing that was ever obvious about her is that she has been wanting you so intensely since the day she saw you for the very first time and she never spares herself in her longing for you..and now finally has you beside her permanently for atleast once in life,unless you want to again state that the Vultures are insinuating that this togetherness is an hindrence for you two to see how much you two actually want each other and rigourously try to disprove them killing yourself right before her eyes"

Ash(smile) : "Tracy,what did i want?"

Tracy(deep sigh) : "The Title"

Ash(smile) : "Only?"

Tracy : "Only."

Ash(smile) : "What do i want?"

Tracy : "Mi..no..um,you actually don't want anything..you have.."

Ash(smile) : "what do i have?"

Tracy : "Misty"

Ash(smile) : "and?"

Tracy : "your mom,pokemons and Misty thats all..oh and yes,you youself"

Ash(smile) : "my endeavours recently,why have i done what i've done with Misty and my endeavours in my whole career as a Pokemon trainer,what is it that i wanted,what is it that i have what is it that i will never have?"

Tracy : "you've wanted the tag,you got the tag,you will never have a tag permanently with your death the tag will go away or if you don't practice,your skills will go away,if you..wait,i get you you'll never have anything that's not you"

Ash(smile) : "that's the tag,what with,and i basically am warning you this last time,think and phrase properly cause it's about Mist,MY Mist,take your time and speak your heart."

Tracy : "um..bear with me..you wanted Misty,you got Misty but..yes Ash,the Misty we see you'll never have,the Misty you see you'll always have.."

Ash(smile) : "clarity,more clarity"

Tracy : "you two are um..like same thing in two different vessel somehow, so you'll always get paired no matter what but one vessel may blindfold ownself and so on but as it's said the pairing and eventual nonseparability is inevitable,so,that is we unnecessarily was worried about both you and Misty,while ourselves having to go through the same realizations in our own personal lives and so on..so,now if similarity applied we better keep absolutely off and we better never say you're her best choice rather saying..um sorry,please Ash..never say you're her best but only ever choice,Gr..no sorry..that chapter never happened,never existed,it was like a mirage..and if we meet him behave like friend till he brings that up himself,then we'll bite.and we don't meet him on purpose by any means,even if one does it must be Gary,cause he never gave him any consideration and Brock is sternly warned if he wishes to talk to you ever again he has to be like this as well,and if somehow something happens or that Misty is intentionally or casually ever mentioned about that phrases meaning of her personal life by anybody,then that's it the very first time,you'll tell Misty, you're moving away from here but if that goes beyond may god save us and the whole Cerulian City,and it's no warning or threat it's a statement if we don't agree,or Misty somehow in intentionally reminded by other people and we despite having power don't do anything,then that too is,basically you don't want any shadow of any dirty hands on your most..no you own self..yeah i get you,if one lea..um..if the one is not getting ever closer to the other in as fast a rate and for that reason the other is a bit unstable so the support cast has to make sure by every means that it keeps well."

Ash(smile) : "perfect,now another Misty "wanted" me?"

Tracy(Ash speaking inside Tracy's Mind) :

"um..Ash,she also always had you but she..no,no..um..yeah if we never interfared then she would never had had that illusion of ever being not getting closer to you..but you were rude..um,ok..you can solve your own problems but she at first..well later yes right,she was doing your trials as were you and so on..yeah no involvement in personal problems unless purely medical necessaties...Misty has always been with you,she's just like that..right and yeah i get you on that,and you don't hold any grudge against me but if something further happens to Misty,that will be the end of it."

Ash(smile) : "Trace,what has happend?"

Tracy(sigh) : "Nothing,all this is a play of you two of hide and seek just like you and your pokemons,the results here are mere tokens,beneath them what you are you always are and so on..Ash,we just want you and Misty to not play any self destructive game just to prove that absolutely nothing can separate you two or for the fun of it,and this applies especially for you Ash,stop this,go to Orange with Misty and we won't keep you preoccupied for long at all, it's just that please just a very few days,have mercy on us.."

Ash(smile) : "Trace,Trace,Trace...the Vultures have only taken a bit of a shock, They're still very much here Trace,i can feel their plans,no i won't make you go thoroughly through their planning again but this is the Ultimate, that i COULD'VE done things differently, COULD'VE shown her less emotion yesterday, Could've..and so on, that is what is happening and has happened COULD'VE been different, but why is it not? (sternly) Trace tell me frankly, the vultures are interrogating that what incentive I've ever given to anyone including Misty to suddenly believe that I was never a playboy at all?"

Tracy(smile) : "Ash, you surely don't need to validate yourself on this point and you know it, what you said last night is exactly that and what neither me nor Daisy can ever forget, cause you just with this recent characteristic language and antics of yours told us exactly what we the couples actually feel between us all the time and that so heartfelt thing you just gave as your answer with your antics and still are doing, (laugh) man really what has happened to the boy that I saw 15 years back, absolutely clueless as to what's happening around him, only ever knowing the goal of becoming a pokemon master and only ever knowing his Misty(both smile) which infact as i now understand wasn't at all the thing,it was only the illusion of you yourself that was there,you were and still very much are just absolutely oblivious to everything and Misty well it's as you meant,you yourself (both smile)"

Ash(frown) : "the vultures will now easily insinuate that what if i lost sinnoh,what if Mist never left what if i truely have bedded roads.. s.. and only then have realized that they didn't appease me as much as they should so now i'm coming back to old dens..no Trace don't shake your head answer me,the Vultures will continue the what ifs just after the could've.."

Tracy(laugh) : "then the answer is what if they never bothered to begin with.thats all"

Ash(smile,hug Tracey) : "Right! so the vultures Trace are for only now returning to their nests only for us to go to Cerulian..Cerulian,Cerulian..i would just love to,love to Trace note this down,I'll have my ceremony right in the middle of that godforsaken pool in that goddamn Gym named the f.. central battlefield,where those little brats have sucked the life out of my eversweet flower slowly match after match,where my little flower was smacked around like a shuttlecock as those doomsday goblins clapped their hands off,exactly where a certain godforsaken sinister boy scout tried to pull off the once in a million dreams stunt by insinuating that my ever beaming flower was using performance enhancements to get to that f.. Hall of Fame book, exactly on the same place,which was searched by the exact f.. brats who were clapping around when my flower was steady,but now were searching,searching to tear off the very last petal off my griefstricken little flower by labelling her a mental wreck..Trace,i'm hungry..Trace...i'm very hungry.."

Tracy(laughing) : "Ash,they did the same thing to my flower too,so only for this time i agree with your latest rant wholeheartedly"

Ash(smile) : "exactly Trace,you couldn't do it cause your not that kind of a person,and for my flower and all the other three flowers who are now my family,and all of whom were stressed beyond limits by the sinister Cerulian city with its godforsaken gangs of eternal brats..Trace,i'm starving,make sure when i come back i can have that ceremony there,no not what you think,not that Trace.. that's eventual but what follows-> the ceremony of Vultures,of Cerulian's doomsday rats..i'll induct them one after another personally picking up,minutely,pick up the most wicked of those lambs and induct them to the slaughter house of trash talking and they'll enjoy it,they'll have to clap their impending doom otherwise on that godforsaken day,they won't come out of that goddamn building,ever again to show their croocked faces on this world..Trace i'm hungry make sure i can feed on Cerulian brats one day,they want shows,they want to enjoy themselves,they sucked up the Sensational Sisters till the very end but now there'll have a new show,The Sensational Sinister,where any godforsaken brat,having the audacity to show up around the Challenger's Identification Centre anytime during 24 hours without 7 league titles and 31 Kanto badges,except from 11-11:15 daytime,will get mentally and verbally and if they're too interested then physically too by their very own pokemons smacked left and right in every battle and they'll have to enjoy the new badge of utter incompetence that will be bestowed upon them day after day if the godforbidden Cerulian wants a peaceful sleep in the night.Trace, Cerulian is in it's very last month of exuberance,that they're known for,but after that,may they save themselves.(smile)right Trace,let's go(recalles all pokemons as does Tracy),no i exactly sensed that mom hasn't started preparing the lunch so nothing has happened here and we just after completing all here go to the Lab to have the Grand Union that's well been 15 years in making(Tracy laughs)(smile)and i really thought that Daisy would be too excited and Lillie too dumbstruck to do anything but NOT wanting to arrange a party, specifically why she sent you to vulture around(Tracy bursts into laughter)here to see if we weren't going out anywhere,surely them Trace,i'll love to go also now that mom is there and my antics there yesterday,i only wish Violet could be here but Brock has a little bit left with me(Tracy shakes his head),so there'll have to be another day as well(Tracy Laughs)"

Tracy (laughing) : "be our guest Ash,would you cook?"

Ash(smile) : "with pleasure!"

Tracy(laughing) : "fine but that might be on that later day special for Brock(Ash laughs)lets go."

Ash(laugh) : "just hang on Trace,we've to go 7 hours later(laughs uncontrollably)"

Tracy (flustered) : "um.."

Ash(bursts into laughter) : "sweet sweet Trace,just tell them going on around 3 pm,have something there,then going to Viridian Lake,where Brock will be present by evening or afternoon and then we'll pass the night there, Tomorrow morning i'm finally leaving for Pinkenberry with Charizard,Bulbasaur,Talonflame,I'll decide whether to take Ganger with me or not later,and i'm going with ONLY Mist,Tracy Skechit is strictly prohibited especially in Orange(both brusts into laughter)" Tracy(laugh) : "you want to show my graveyard plan?(both brusts into laughter)" Ash(smile) : "just a suprise Trace,a monumental one,come on.."

and Pikachu just kept staring at you and looking at me and was very excited and was saying a single thing consistently,he you know understands me as well as anybody and he himself was happy to see you again after a very long time and he was always on my shoulder the moment during breakup we last saw each other,he doesn't understand these things the way we know,his worldview is totally different than ours, but probably he must've felt something as we didn't call and all that, so he was happy and pointing to your picture in a low voice started constantly saying one word "Pikachupi! Pikachupi! Pikachupi" his word for "MISTY"..and i just felt like i was looking at something so familiar yet so far as if i was touching something kept in front of me yet the touch felt like as if it's lives million lives apart..as if i knew somehow a million years ago in a live many many lives ago and shared some memories that were so precious that i just couldn't move after all these many years later despite my internal bliss it was only covering a darkness that i'm touching something long gone..and Pikachupi felt like warm breeze hitting my face constantly, without ceasing, and tears automatically rolled down my cheeks..and (bit choked)..it was then i first had a glimpse of what you really are to me..there it actually felt like it's only me million lives ago yet so far away and it's as if just another type of body that i had and i've ever so longed for a grand union again and it wasn't like looking at your own 5 year old picture,it was something way way stronger than anything i ever have heard,read,seen or experienced that i can relate to..it was so natural..i forgot actually i can't really describe what i did see but i didn't see flesh and blood at all there as by then it i had become habituated to by analysis and no i didn't even remember any good things that you may've ever done to me or who you were etc,Pikachu's words and this picture had given me the realization that i never imagined,i just realized as if someone firmly but gently speaking in my head in my own voice- "MISTY-that's your soul,you are that as well and the difference you're making is only your illusion,you are Misty and Misty is you,no difference is there,see it for yourself"..and I don't know how long i stood there or i just didn't want to part..here here here..

Misty(deep sigh) : "Ash, you're also a Disaster

Master!why break this moment up?i was seeing that as well.."

Ash(bit puzzled) : "um..sorry..but(laugh)..i just realized now that if then,exactly then some vulture dared to be around and this is another God's Grace that they didn't,but if they did and disturbed me or gave the scene to the press,i would've been very happy to set at that very moment all of my pokemons on the vulture if i was even remotely disturbed then or my moment went public,but God didn't let that happen out of the infinite compassion,so some vultures were saved and No,Mist really,if i didn't get you due to some vulture then disturbing me,my name would've been written with blood then and there and i knew nobody present in that building,Lance included could do anything about me or my pokemons actions and it wouldn't have been nice and i would've become a real nerve wreck then as i would've tried to push my pokemons to absolute ultimate,killing them and myself in the process..now so hopefully vultures showed some intelligence there and saved their godforsaken lives and MINE as well..anyhow..vulture is a good name i.."

Misty(frown) : "Ash,i would like that the infinite compassion be helpful to you in restraining me from smacking you the next time you suddenly drag vultures in a most beautiful scene,continue now"

Ash(laugh) : "alright,alright,so the vultur..um,no don't do that(Misty lightly smacks Ash's head),its ok(laugh),so sweet,nostalgia(Misty laughs and again smacks a bit forcefully)..um..ok do that always but gently..(both brusts into laughter)"

Misty(sigh) : "Ash,please you.."

Ash(smile) : "ok,ok,bare with me,i'm just back,so i was in this trace like state and then i was brought back to my senses by a Gentle hand on my shoulders..it was Lance,and i also recognised hat Pikachu had long stopped uttering your name and was constantly looking at me,so i just suddenly was brought back to my senses and looking at Lance was just startled and didn't know what to say,in the mean time Noivern had put the picture back and is now standing beside me,i called him back but i had no words at all in my head,then Lance very gently broke the silence saying,that he knew Professor Oak as well as and knew me for ages,in his words->

Ash(stuttering) : "um..it's all right..i just..um.."

Lance(kind face) : "Lost in thoughts?"

Ash(thoughtfull) : "yeah i guess"

Lance : "Ash you've been standing like this for 10 minutes at least as i've entered here and was just observing you and i left you here 15 minutes ago,so it must be 25 minutes then or there about.Ash, the tears"

and then i suddenly realized i cried a bit and quickly wiped off the tears and

Ash : "um..no it's alright Lance..i just.."

Lance : "Ash, it's alright,i know her well,Misty was your constant travel companion for 5 long years and then she came to Cerulian Gym and did brilliantly and she was also.."

Ash(bit choked,bit high pitched) : "Please,enough!"

Lance : "Ash.."

Ash : "um..sorry..but she's still alive and it just felt a bit..um..well.. awkward,anyhow um..sorry for shouting at you Lance..i'm terrib.."

Lance : "Ash,it's all right,you were wanting to know more about Misty right?"

Ash : "Lance it's ok..i'll just ask someone else..your responsibilities.."

Lance(firmly shrugging off) : "Ash,i know my responsibilities and restrictions,i can tell you about Misty Waterflower from Cerulian City Gym and Frontier symbol all that i reliably and personally know,but you must stay here tonight as we have to finish with this,you've been absent from the dinner for too long,you must comply with me"..

see i took the chance because..please this is just jokingly..i politely asked Lance if i could mouth the press off and if i swore mag he spare me,Lance smiled and said that he himself will get rid of the press and will finish the night as quickly as possible and besides not much was left of it..so,anyhow i couldn't thrash the vultures then and there for for their campaign to ruin my personal life and so again Lance saved himself and vultures..thus it happened.."

Misty : "um..Ash,we better go and eat something"

Ash : wait just a bit..

Misty(blush a bit) : "um..Ash,i may again have to face Lance very soon.."

Ash(smile) : "na,it's alright with him, your like his second daughter or even much younger i guess, it's alright,but here you must bear with me again as i want to contrast the reasons why other people thought we're made for each other"

Misty(smile) : "ya,i would."

Misty : "yes Ash,i had to,he was pestering me first due to my name and fame and all that,then when he got a rude awakening there he started name calling and dragging my friends and family into it and doing all that,so i had to take actions as all my sisters supported me and we got rid of him from there and while busting we we found out he was using illegal performance enhancers and all that,so his water pokemons were added to me,others went to different labs,well Gary managed to take the 90% actually..haha..he was extending the lab then so he began and actually it was a good advertisement as well...anyhow that was almost two years ago but you can continue now"

Ash(tendering Misty's cheeks) : "No Mist,i shouldn't have left you just like that,anyhow..lets reminisce,so Lance told the stories and all about you and your recent problems,i almost instantly knew that you actually was only longing to see me and were entrapped in a golden cage with the huge responsibility of polishing it everyday,so you finally resorted to your pokemons and gym and frontier and all else and it did get you in Hall of Fame but you weren't all right..by the way Green met me in Jhoto Elite 4,my first,and was trying to imply that i was needed near my hometown even before i got started saying that when would i go to Kanto Elite 4,cause the Elite 4 will retire and all that and yeah he did you a real friend's favour by trying to approach me,as soon as he extracted my news from Brock,but as soon as i asked him from where he was from and why so much sympathy from Lance suddenly,and then i held him up and rang Lance and so that he wasn't the messenger was proved,and i just politely asked him that why was he so desperate himself being a good enough Pokemon trainer having won Orange League,and he stammered a bit and then i pressed him for his hometown address,he had to admit that he was from Cerulian,as soon as i heard that name i told him there's no need to pull such stunts on me i've not yet won a single Elite 4,winning only 6 leagues and threatened him that if he pesters me further,i'll personally love to battle him and snatch away is Orange League trophy cause mine just got a bit lonely and i'll do all this by means of pokemon battling,to which he cringed but still being a

League Champion he felt humiliated and just agreed to battle me, but said I would only after the Elite 4 match and forced him to stay and watch, and I did have a great match fortunately and the Elite 4 himself recognized my abilities, so Green got a bit awestruck but was still willing to battle, and I have big respect for him as he reminded me of myself but just before we started I trash talked him in the press without naming which got him angry and he was about to get physically involved with me, then I told him personally that listen mate, just tell me the reason for your desperation and obsession with me I feel physically threatened compelling me to take legal actions against him, to which he was infuriated and said to look up who he was which is from there his things were known and then he was still saying things to which I said just spit it out, and he said that I mingled with his girlfriend, but as soon as he said that I myself told him if she was still your girlfriend and has been with me just forget her and save himself and that its not my fault that people like him would throw themselves at my door..which rather pushed him back.then the press created a fuss but i suppressed his name and got it changed so he had been greatful to me and just shook my hands and left,but he made me more screwed up after the Serena fiasco months apart and i said well this can be fun,and just about truly started my antics.."

Misty(sigh) : "Ash,i did know Green went to you but i didn't know he pestered around like that,(smile and frown)we'll have to answer many people at Cerulian..

Ash(irritated) :

"Cerulian!Cerulian,Cerulian,Cerulian! except for my flower there's nothing good there and just last night they proved me righg again,and my flower was accidentally there,it could've been Viridian,it could've been Venus as well,Cerulian"

Misty(laugh) : "sorry Ash,but i just love it how you hate my hometown with a particular passion,but you never did before"

Ash(irritated) : "no cause i didn't fully comprehend my cherished flower and thought it would be just like any City,but since then and especially since i now know their infatuation with Sensational Sisters and that Gym,that was your sweat and tears and took it for granted,I can't but be delighted now to go there and perform,and no even last evening i wasn't bothered but then they created a fuss there in the shop,they owe a big performance from me and it'll be in the local press where i finally will get my hands at precious Cerulian f.. sorry"

Misty(laugh) : "anyway it's my hometown,just spare it a thought before you reign havoc there"

Ash(smile) : "sorry Mist,but on this one i can't give you any guarantees but as i'll have to also be in that godforsaken place myself i'll spare the Gym..you'll know that i praised the leader to heaven and demoted the support cast at the same Gym to hell,and i'll spare this gym.."

Misty : "much appreciated,now continue"

Ash(smile) : "yes,then Lance told me that Misty Waterflower is a famous name throughout Kanto and other places may be as well and that my teenage travel companion Misty and Misty Waterflower,Cerulean Gym leader were two very different persons as if i didn't know it already,he i guess thought i had a teenage crush kinda thing rekindled and probably didn't forget her and due to your condition he thought if he could help(laugh).. I don't get this infatuation of people not letting a person be happy AND single.."

Misty(solemn) : "Ash,i wasn't happy at all,that was the whole reason things started"

Ash : "yeah a mess that almost defeated me had it not been for that day there..anyhow,he went on and told me about your present state a bit and then said i'll agree that i'll help,to which i said indeed if such is the case i'll be very happy to help my long lost dear friend,which he also agreed but then despite knowing my abilities tried to advised

me that you have picked up a bit of a bad name and they suspect you might soon get your hands dirty with illegal business,as soon as he said illegal,i scoffed that i helped busting team rocket and i've had enough experience with illegal things which he said he just cautioned me because he thought i liked that picture but i might get a rude awakening,i politely said if he gives me protection i'll do my maximum but i said please i don't want to hear a word more on the past,present or future Misty Waterflower and I don't like anybody telling me anything about my childhood friends no matter what they've become now..so then i set things up with Lance,came out for the first week gauged whether i really wanted it or not,then once i knew the answer is yes,the next two weeks i planned on what i shall do contacted my family and all that,but the biggest thing was my infighting and once i won that just the night before i handcupped you(smile,holding Misty's hands and immitating),from then on i knew i've got you back

50%,full from my part,and the rest depends upon you..so yes, that's how i came back.."

Misty(clap and smile) : "Bravo,no first you saved me second we married third we had to pass a sleepless first night due to hoot-hoots..(laugh)"

Ash(laugh) : "see vulture is a better word"

Misty(smirk) : "Its vulpic,only that you're not allowed to use it"

Ash(smile) : "right(phone rings Serena),right Vulture Time(shows phone,brusts into laughter,Misty shakes her head again with a faintand Pikachu just kept staring at you and looking at me..and i smile)

Ash: "No Mist,go help Mom or take rest here,i'm talking all day since yesterday noon,let me get this,later if she wants you can"

Misty(tendering Ash's cheeks) : "don't take too much strain, she's a mere kid"

Ash(smile) : "ok,hellow,Serena,how may i come into your service?"

Serena : "um..Ash,i just thought as you said yesterday.."

Ash(sternly) : "you're in Unova,it's night there and you should be either sleeping or studying or training,why are you in my room?"

Serena : "um..just wanted to know?"

Ash : "if she ever liked the shape of the ring and.."

Serena(sternly) : "Ash,this is too much, you're mar.."

Ash(sternly) : "MARRIED TO MISTY

KETCHUM,record it and make it your alarm tone"

Serena(dissapointed) : "i called you to say i'm going to have my 4th Gym battle day after tomorrow.."

Ash(irritated) : "You have about 5000 people there who've spent their entire god damn lives exactly around where your staying now,but i would know more than them?from here?"

Serena : "just give Misty the phone,none can talk with you.."

Ash(laugh) : "including?"

Serena(screem) : "hey don't get me started ok,i also need advise on..um.."

Ash : "Boyfriends?"

Serena(hesitant) : "um..yes"

Ash(laugh) : "that you wanted Sam but Sam is all over..?"

Serena(iritated) : "hey stop that, that's none of your business,just i want to congratulate you and Misty and also tell you that this perfectly makes me happy as this erases off my mistake entirely and from now on i'll not need to call you.THANK YOU"

Ash(laugh) : "yeah bye!(angry) Little godforsaken brats.."

.....(Misty and Delia downstairs)...

Delia : "dear,you look a bit worn out.."

Misty(smile) : "um..no just too much talking,i'm habituated though Gyms are hard places.."

Delia(points out Misty's ring) : "so happy,Mist,your officially Ketchum now.."

Misty(giggle) : "thanks Mom.."

Delia : "did he fetch that before.."

Misty(bit ashamed) : "yes,Mom that's what he did"

Delia(bit concerned) : "he has changed quite a bit in these 3 years,his language also isn't very polite i can sense.."

Misty(nervously) : "um..yeah a bit rough..he's just a bit tired but won't stop working"

Delia(concerned) : "well,he surely knows how to scare people"

Misty(smile) : "that i have to agree with"

Delia(smile) : "Mist,when are you going out today?"

Misty : "um..you mean date?"

Misty(nervously) : "well..we had yesterday but today..well..um..we haven't decided on that yet.."

Delia(frown) : "Mist,is everything all right,you can and infact should be frank you know.."

Misty(laugh) : "i'm sorry mom for laughing,but don't worry at all,he's as sweet as ever,just a bit tired,you know the press hasn't been kind to him,so he still just thinks that he has to logically validate every moment of his life and give his analysis or the result of it to anyone concerned in a rather colourful way that in his mind will give the press a good beat-down"

Delia(smile and concerned) : "i see,no my little Ash never could do anybody any harm but i guess you should get this trash talking checked,it's not at all good"

Misty(smile) : "i'm being right at it but it'll take time,he had just been living a lonely life,it'll just take him some time to come into terms with his new surroundings"

Delia(smile) : "but enough about him,how are you,my little doll?"

Misty(giggle) : "fine mom,just fine"

Delia(looking at Misty's ring holding her hand) : "very beautiful.but Mist,you should take rest as well,you yourself weren't in a good health and much emotion overnight.."

Misty(smile) : "i'm fine mom,i've had too many sleepless nights because of the Gym and other things,i'm habituated like that for the past 12 years,rather last night was the best sleepless night till date"

Delia(smile) : "happy to know my little doll,but um..Ash might also not be prepared to take you out for a dinner because he thinks that the press.."

Misty(laugh) : "um..sorry for laughing mom,but it's just the effects of his antics throughout the night..i've been entertained beyond imagination,but no he has refused to take me out on a date or to dance or giving me a flower bouquet-refusal in all accounts"

Delia(very concerned) : "my God!..what's the matter.."

Misty(laughing) : "he would rather run away with me to unknown destinations"

Delia(smile) : "too much imagination(Misty bursts into laughter),besides Mist,he's fine at home."

Misty(smile) : "mom,its just that press bug that's bitten him for such a long time and to such an extent,he just can't yet get over it,so thats his definition of complete solitude"

Ash(outside) : "Mom,food,and overwork that little

Mimey of yours, don't let my Mist work at all,she's...um,i just want her with me here right now and all the time"

Delia(smile) : "also my Mist too, remember that,and leave Mimey alone"

Ash(irritated) : "mom,please,but,if you don't allow me to um..well..gaze at my Mist all i want,then i'll get Mime to battle,there you little brat.."

Delia(frown) : "Ash, that's impolite,and leave Mimey right now."

Ash(wrestling with Mime,comes near) : "Mime is pestering me ever since..why you little brat, you're no good for..mom where's my food"

Misty(surprized) : "where are you going?"

Delia(taking Mime away,scowl&frown) : "Ash wait there in the table,Mist will take both of your foods,and don't runaway with Mist so quickly(laugh)"

Ash(dissapointed) : "yeah,so you've decided that i should be away from Mist.."

Delia(frown,comes to Ash) : "what's wrong with you honey?calm down, your always too agitated,too active all the time,Mist is coming,let her prepare the dishes.."

Ash(irritated,sitting) : "Mist come quickly,and why can't Mime prepare the dishes and no i'm a bit excited and yes,i'm going to the farm."

Delia(frown) : "Ash,just wait here be calm honey,i've got to ask you something"

Misty (comes with dishes) : "here are the..(Ash tries to take off the dishes and hug Misty)

Ash,what are you.."

Delia(frown) : "Ash.."

Ash(hugging Misty) : "ah! that's what i wanted,no a bit later.."

Misty(scoffs) : "Ash,mom is here its rude!"

Ash(hugging Misty) : "no if you hug me back,i'll not say a thing while i'm at the table,and mom being here makes no difference, it's not a vulgar st.."

Misty(hugging Ash quickly,then scoffing) : "that's it.Ash,are you out of your mind?calm down,don't make a fuss"

Ash(sitting down) : "no i'm done,will eat very slowly and sorry mom and Silence"

Delia(frown) : "Misty,just sit down honey"

Misty : "yeah,just these things.."

(finally everyone sits down)

Delia(observing Ash) "Mist,can you tell me something,I don't know much about training and battling but i do know Mimey more than anyone,what is wrong with Ash?"

Ash(scowl) : "Mom your not insin..um,sorry suggesting that.."

Misty(angry,shouts) : "Ash!just eat silently!"

Delia(very concerned) : "Mist,please,why is he behaving like this,and no it's not just now since the day he has returned,he's been like that,Mimey's too excited all the time and wants to play around so does Ganger and those two,Pikachu seems pretty indifferent to Ash,what is it?these Dark Types aren't good Ash,you know.."

Misty(smile) : "Mom,please calm down i'll explain everything..no Ash,not you and you're not leaving till i'm finished,Pikachu,come to Misty,baby(Pikachu jumps to Misty),right,and No

Ash you're staying silent"

Delia(bit shivering voice) : "Mist.."

Misty(smile) : "Mom,we don't have anything to hide from you but it's a kind of a trade secret..he's an once only living legend in Pokemons Training and hence he's so important to the world.."

Ash(scoff) : "Mist is in.."

Misty(frown) : "Ash"

Ash(grim) : "very well,but mention yourself,she doesn't know.."

Misty(frowns at Ash,back to Delia,smiling) :

"Mom,he has unfathomable powers over Pokemons, especially on his own ones,and even in general that aren't his,he can instantly gauge them and if he so wants get attuned to their nerves and the whole combination then becomes very absolutely invincible in battling,and those like Mime,who've been with him for 16 years,and you know Mime too is a Psychic type thus can be extremely powerful if she wants to be-but just like she and Ganger,Noivern and Gerninja,Ash's nerve's state affects them a bit...they always are too playful..."

Delia(concerned) : "um..Mist,that doesn't seem to be a very good thing,is it like an obsession?"

Misty(smile) : "exactly the opposite,Ash's own nature is getting reflected in Mime and all them,Pikachu is an exception due to his own temperament and he can't be automatically affected just by Ash's presence,he has to be warmed up,so he's indifferent it seems and he's also able to catch Ash's nerve states,he's just irritated with him that he's always playfull and not battling anymore..see mom i myself have two such pokemon,one Golduck and a Gyarados and i can affect pokemons too but they won't show visible characteristics like this because my temperament is different to Ash and so are our pokemons,i'll show you Golduck later,but that's my own bunch and on opposite side i can affect them but it's very limited and difficult...Ash's level is impossible to gauge..but this thing is there for trainers that can affect opposite pokemons and it's just trade secret as we call it, it's very seleted people in this world can do this successfully and this power might be abused as well thus the secrecy but the trainers at this level if comes naturally,like Ash had automatically comes to know this a long time ago and now it's absolutely natural to him,infact now this Pikachu alone is enough to mat some 120 other Pikachus who've won 4 leagues and and 70 Pikachus who have won 6 or 7,like Ash has,Pikachu can alone face the whole Elite 4 and their Pikachus at one time and still will just laugh them off if he is focused enough,and Ash's level is once only,none ever has went there and Ash is 29 and only growing by manifolds by day,he can hold sway over his opponents at mere will no matter who they are,there can be other pokemon trainers who has a special power over only his or one specific type of pokemons but Ash can do it to anybody and even laugh off legendaries,given he's mind is focused and he wants to face them,if Ash wishes he can tame Legendary Pokemons for some times and even after that phase,but i would actually claim,though he won't but no it's not my bragging but a true fact that with his practices and all,Ash is unmatched in terms of Mastery over Pokemons given he is focused and ready with a clear mind that really wants to battle or Master over a pokemon and that's why he's so sought after, simply put there's have never been anyone ever like him(beams and blushes,Delia smiles but a bit flustered)"

Ash : "and Mist is.."

Misty(frown) : "Ash,please,just stay silent"

Delia(bit flustered) : "um..well..i see...his dad always had this dream now he has done it..but he must be lonely.."

Ash(brusting into laughter) : "mom,mom,mom,of course i was lonely and hence my troubles,but i'm no more and yes i feel too lonely especially if I can't hug my Mist all I want,if so then i'll become more playfull and so would Mimey and she'll then go to battles,so you see i have a deal.."

Misty(frown) : "Ash,stop that, don't talk like this with mom"

Ash(grim) : "but..i'm not harm.."

Delia(smile) : "no honey,you never can harm but are you not going to obey your mommy because your all powerfull now?"

Ash(blush,solemn) : "mom,what the..?you know what i'm.."

Delia(smile) : "absolutely honey,i do,just remember that press will not be after you unless you wish them too and even if the press is around you,you still don't have to give rigourous motives behind your each actions get it?

Ash(grim, dissapointed) : "yes mom."

Delia(smile) : "are you dissapointed with that?"

Ash(beaming) : "nope."

Delia(smile) : "that's my sweet boy.by the way,and no not you Ash cause you won't have any control over your language is you're excited in this state,Mist will herself briefly say about her success with Pokemons"

Ash : "huh! then basically i should.."

Misty and Delia unison(smile) : "no, silence"

Ash(grim) : "fine"

Misty(smile) : "um,mom i've also been accepted into Water Gym Leader's hall of fame and like him i'm also among the top.."

Ash : "THE TOPPEST"

Misty(frown) : "Ash, didn't we agree that you'll be silent?"

Delia(sternly) : "Ash,just.shut.up. say Mist"

Misty(laugh): "um..sorry mom..yeah,i'm also among the top water Pokemon trainers and Gym leaders"

Ash(whinnying) : no i'll interrupt every time,she IS THE,no please Mist,bear with me,please.."

Delia(smile) : "ok Mist,i'll bear with his language,besides i must know what my little doll has done too,please Mist,this time, let's just bear with him together,but Ash,if you cross the line,i'll not listen to you"

Ash(sticking his tongue out to Misty) : "yeah!"
(everyone bursts into laughter)

Ash(smile) : "Mist is THE TOPMOST water pokemon gym leader in THE world but may be not,i'm having to say may be because else the vultures will insinuate that(Delia and Misty shake their heads)(smiling) yeah, that's my eloquence(Delia,Misty both laugh)...anyhow,the vultures will insinuate that there are 7 regions in this world where things are vastly different,Cerulean,a name that i'm not fond of at all except when it's associated with my flower(Delia a bit puzzled,then smiles,Misty blushes), (smile)that's the name(Delia laughs and pats Misty,Misty blushes) being a seaside city,its kinda easy,kinda natural,kinda understandable,kinda taken for granted that the Gym,if there is one,will be a Water Pokemon gym and if Pallet had a water pokemon Gym then suddenly to the vultures it becomes a problem that because the Geography is different,so is the Pokemon and so the trainers are a bit different,but i've been everywhere,i've never seen a 17 year old kid being able to handle a Gyarados to the extend where she made it like Mime is to you mom,at the age of 17 and her Gyarados could use flamethrower as good as my Charizard could and you know him,i still can't beat her Gyarados one on one and she had all the power over it at the age of 17,and on that day if she challenged me,all of my then present pokemons would've lost not even making Gyarados a bit tired and i had 4 or something that day,excluding Pikachu,and Pikachu doesn't battle Mist,even if i kill him he still won't and no that day he too would've been laughs off by Mist and Gyarados and the only time i could persuade my chu-bro to was when he rather kinda a did a fake fight,this is when i took my flower here to me from the godforsaken(Misty&Delia frowns)..sorry..Cerulean vultures who yesterday had the audacity to imply to me that i've abducted their flower..MIST is MY FLOWER ONLY(Misty blushes and scowls and frowns,Delia smiles and pats Misty),but the trouble is that they would rather clap her to death than to help her to stand and then they.."

Delia(sigh) : "Ash, it's about Mist,not your vultures" (Misty shakes her head)

Ash(smile) : "right,my dear sweet flower can push her Gyarados now to a level which she told you about and then this Gyarados isn't her strongest Pokemon at all,it is Golduck and Dewgong and Starmie,who she had at like 1 year birthday present.."

Misty(laugh) : "5"

Ash(smile) : "right,5 year present,and there are many more,so the vultures finally had to budge else they would've abjectly humiliated themselves but the hallowed Cerulean City for the love of God never bothered,they wanted more and more and everyday every hour there would be this damn arrogant brat who'd challenge only to show that he was a failure as a celebrated boy scout or girl cheerleader(Delia and Misty frowns)..anyhow..stup...alright(both laughs).. but my flower still had to appease those brats by giving them a badge and fighting them,this badge they got will be the only in their god damn lives and thus my flower was getting drained more and more mentally and physically and the all caring Cerulian might was doing was to cheer her slow death...so.."

Delia(solemn) : "Mist,i heard you weren't well,but this really was too much.."

Misty(smile) : "mom,i'm now very well and no had he been there at this form of his,i wouldn't have needed to work or perform at all,money would've poured into the Gym simply by this rate of trash talk even with his wife and mother,long live the vultures Ash,really"

(Misty and Delia brusts into laughter)

Ash(smile) : "good break,thanks for the refreshments Mist,and this will be long (Misty and Delia again brusts into laughter)..then there was the king of brats in the neighbouring Frontier Symbol,which i'm just too tired to explain but mom remember the job offer that i rejected ? this is this Battle Frontier's gym.anyhow this brat conspiring with our well known Cerulian all-knowers,tried to totally destroy my little flower there but then as i've told you,my flower is once only and so she can just deximate any goddamn weed pretending to be trees without just like an wink,and so this frontier Symbol had to be out over my flower cause the conspiring Elite4 thought that would be moral,which she barely was able to manage,it's like two gyms in one building and you can understand the workload that my flower had to bear alone and then the Cerulian brats came up with a new plan,they were sending..Mist this will become personal"

Misty(grim) : "Ash, just give it a break,would you?"

Delia(concerned) : "what did they do to her Ash?"

Ash(solemn) : "Mist, you're seeing my moods but mom needs to know,she has an idea about both of us, especially you,though..."

Delia(scoff) : "Ash,are you.."

Misty(sigh) : "not again,Ash,i'm not going to listen (hugs Delia)"

Ash(solemn) : "Mom,you've taught me to be honest with myself first,you want that today?"

Delia(frown) : "i understand,yes,Mime, don't allow anyone in at any cost no matter who,you too Pikachu just protech the house(both leave)"

Ash : "and hold onto your daughter and cajole her,i've caused her what pain i'll tell you now"

Delia(concerned, hugging Misty) : "i see,no dear please,your with your mom"

Misty : "mom..just tell him to say it as a comedy,he's been repeating this throughout the night..(hugging Delia)"

Delia(scowl at Ash,hugging Misty) : "Ash you've just heard her,and i order you now make it as bearable as possible,and my dear Mist,i'm telling Ash that if he repeats it again,then he'll not.."

Ash : "MOM,i got you.it'll be so Mom,just hold onto her"

Delia(scowl) : "Ash start and don't cross any limit"

Ash : "as you say,mom.right,Mom you know about Serena and you also know i was kissed accidentally in public,these were accidents and before them there was one and that was the first for us both me and Mist that was the only time i did that on my own wish and her wish also matched mine.Mist fell for me almost from the first sight and you know all of it,but..this is funny

Mist..then the vultures started to peek around me especially after the Sinnoh Miracle,as you know and no i didn't cheat on her but my ego swelled a bit too much and eventually we separated,the real fun starts now,so the Cerulian brats came up with a particular plan that now since my flower was a bit depressed and alone,these would circulate over and you know mom,the irony is that i wasn't there at all,i was in heaven,well according to vultures,anyhow,both she and me were tortured beyond measures by the vultures and they were circling around me as well,we took the same measure in different froms,she continued to withdraw herself,i continued to attack them..the only thing was that i was moving around so i in a way was in a much more favourable condition,which um well.. helped me to anticipate if anybody wanted to fall for me,and to cut the long story short,you're seeing that except for my flower none did.and she has been hearing me spit this out to whoever that dared to challenge me and my flower yesterday,got thrown at mercilessly by me,but it hurts her,no only Daisy,Tracy and Brock got this, they're all family,so it's not that the vultures can do anything about or with it.but she still agreed to go through that again just now after going completely sleepless last night,because i told her to bear with me and i told her i don't hide anything from my mom,so she's bearing it now and will so too if i tell the same to the vultures no matter the consequences and she will do it because i'm cherished to her and there's no other reason at all.that's exactly what she was doing when Cerulian brats were hovering around and my sweet flower couldn't take it anymore shut herself up in her room and only attending to pokemon and all was actually dying slowly,as she was taking (),cause she couldn't bear my separation which is why i went to doctor with her yesterday first thing in Safford,but as soon as i returned to her you can see the result and i've not been and not being kind to her either..so if you ever had anything that the vultures told you about me believe all of it and more,but as far as your daughter goes,you can as well treat it as a bad dream.i don't need to tell you whether i reciprocate my flowers feeling for me to her or not,and thus the all conquering Cerulian brats and their master the vultures just abjectly failed in another endeavour.but they'll be at it again but the only thing is that next time i'll be there and i..anyhow, that's the story"

Delia(tendering Misty's head) : "good enough

Ash,but this is the last time you said this and if it's not then.."

Misty(raising her head from the table,with a bit of tear) : "mom, that's Ash's power i was talking about(a bit shivering voice)am i wrong Ash?"

Ash : "no,you're not Mist!"

Delia(tendering Misty) : "ok let's leave and let him entertain his vultures all he wants"

Ash(laugh) : "mom,please i'll leave ,only if I can hug my flower once more,um twice..um thrice..

Delia(tendering Misty) : "do it as many times,but.."

Ash(sigh) : "my power is that i'll trash talk people and tell them such bare truths that the honesty of me will connect with them and their pokemons if pokemons are involved,and then if i want i can extract any secret i want and in the battle it'll mean if you had Mimey and i came without any pokemons,100 such Mime's won't cop with me cause they'll want to play with me all the time and be my pokemon rather so what to speak if i have 84 pokemons myself? thus i can make people tell the absolute truth cause i had to face it from close stare and this'll be if able to help you,you good,if not my bad.Mist has the same powers but her temperaments is different so she can never do what i'm upto,and those who think water pokemon trainers cant handle electeic types they may test Pikachu with Mist and that'll be their last sane day here..anyhow..i know many more things but my only weapon is that and you already know it as do Pikachu,Mime and so on,i took my flower through it,and my flower follows me no matter what i do to her so i had to pick her up from the godforsaken Cerulian City's goddamn Gym and now has put here at my home.this is where i live,my flower now is my family.the end."

Delia(smile) : "i get you,but your process is only good for vultures,and yes hug Mist now"

Ash(smile) : "right.(hugging Misty) there there Mist,you want to hear the flower song again no which was mine not Cerulian"

Misty(blush,hugging Ash quickly) : "later"

...(Mr Mime comes in)..

Delia(frown) : "Mimey who is it? didn't i tell you none allowed?"

Mr Mime :

Ash(irritated) : "Tracy!Tracy,Tracy,Tracy,Tracy,i'm killing him today,Pikachu thunder chair.."

Delia(concerned) : "Ash.."

Misty(smile) : "Mom,he has to mean it..."

...(Pikachu doesn't allow Tracy to enter)...

Tracy : "um..Ash.."

Ash(hugging Misty) : "i'm busy with Mist,get off or else.."

Tracy : "Ash,please it's Golduck"

Misty : "um..Ash i should go.."

Ash : "i'm going too"

Delia(concerned) : "don't hit him"

Ash : "don't send Mime,i'll hit both then"

Delia(self) : "nah!had it not been for Mist,he would've gone mad completely(smile) that's actually what he is expressing to Mist..(pooe boy).."

.....(outside)...

Misty(talkes Golduck) : "thanks Trace.(leaves)"

Tracy : "Mi.."

Ash : "hey you en.. don't call my wife, don't talk with her,don't pester her, don't come near her,dont look at her,don't.."

Tracy(laughing) : "Ash,man you need rest.."

Ash(laugh) : "i need rest?"

Tracy : "um..ok,i get it but you're only making it more and more.."

Ash(scowl,smile) : "sweet sweet Trace,tell me why is it that the vultures are around here?"

Tracy : "um..i'm leaving..(trying to flee) "

Ash(releases Noivern) : "right Trace stand in front of me,yeah here(recalls Noivern,Pikachu jumps onto Ash's lap)see Pikachu doesn't exactly like you..so it's better that you comply"

Tracy : "this is pure blackmailing.."

Ash(angry) : "you f.. brat,shut the f.. up.who called me in the middle of the night to torture my already stressed sweet flower even more.."

Tracy (smile) : "Ash,Misty will forgive me but you were.."

Ash(extremely angry) : "so when are you releasing my speech to international aud.."

Tracy(grim) : "Ash,please.."

Ash(angry) : "the silver screen,the radio,the tv,the internet,the gramophone,the godforsaken mobile.."

Tracy(laugh) : "we won't be able to express it in front of.."

Ash(angry) : "My wife?huh? isn't it,My wife? what is exactly Trace that everyone is concerned suddenly so much about my wife,huh?what do you want? do you want to see whether she truly longs for me or not if i just choke.."

Tracy(solemn) : Ash,please,be patient"

Ash(bursts into anger,but not high pitch) : "No i won't,what can you do about it?what can the vultures do about it? the press,the cinema,the internet,the radio,the roads.. s..,the most beautiful enu.."

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash get into the Hall of Fame formally and just don't get into farming."

Ash(grim) : "cause Misty..no,what is it that now you're so concerned?,no let me finish..what would my wife lose with those not being done? that's you point ain't it?"

Tracy : "Ash,Misty.."

Ash(frown) : "that's it.it's always been Ash and Misty and blah,blah,blah,beautiful b.. has come and gone,f.."

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash,please spare these for another day,you're going to Cerulian or stay.."

Ash(frown) : "so your saying that according to the vultures,the husband should enjoy f.. man-wh.."

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash,take rest and let me go please or talk about Pokemons"

Ash(grim) : "no i'll tak about anything with you if only you don't drag Mist in and more importantly,what is it Trace huh?you want me to show you that my ge.."

Tracy(shout) : "Ash! please, don't torture yourself like this and..oh no.."

Ash(laugh) : "my wife? isn't it? my wife? why and how..no if you dare leave or stop me,i'll set you on Thunder Chair immediately...what is it that people are infatuated with Mist,huh?yes,she has a less black skin,yes she's less at bay with battles,yes she's less unfamiliar in hall of less mediocrity? and? i know what they're thinking but I can be brutal as well,you still can't..no i don't care and nobody comes anywhere near me if i'm home,else they know the result..get over the fact that how can a once eber sweet flower like that wasn't picked up by someone other than the f.."

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash! could you doubt yourself if you heard those words in the middle of.."

Ash(laughing) : "words?"

Tracy : "exactly not Ash,that was your.."

Ash(angry) : "not this dumbnut again,ITS ME,not mine,and so now i've pulled off a stunning publicity stunt,Deceit Mastery,(laugh)on one side to blindfold the family and on the hand hand to go to the b.."

Tracy(smile) : "Ash,they are none except Misty for you."

Ash(laugh) : "so you've finally been able to get around the fact that if a Rhyhorn f.. someone else's sl.."

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash,please,would you argue with me without these words?"

Ash(smile) : "most gladly"

Tracy(smile) : "well,same as yesterday,staring 1.what you see in Misty that you don't see in others?"..

Ash(angy) : "i'm warning you last time Trace,my Mist is not a selling product,if you are insinuating..if anybody..no that's it,from exactly this moment on,if,especially a half-grown en.. like you,manages two words with Mist and look at her,I won't be able to restrain myself but to personally make sure that doesn't go home alive.."

Tracy(sigh) : "Ash,this is your sketch..(hands over the sketch)"

Ash(looking at the Sketch) : "thanks Trace.but hey hand me over the other ones?"

Trace(taken aback) : "Ash"

Ash(smirk) : "Green,Rudy and Georgio and if there's more,i'm personally going to erase all of those godforsaken names that you're hidind behind your fake smile.."

Tracy(forcefully hugging Ash) : "Ash,please for her,stop killing yourself like this slowly,she can't lose..."

Ash(laugh) : "for her?for her? Trace you tell me, except her sisters does she ever had anyone else? huh?no,no i need to understand this infatuation that Brock has had the courage to honesty present in front of me,and i'm as you know,would ever be most happy if i could atleast atleast with my own very hands killed ONE vulture from a group who insinuates that i'm the BEST choice that my..no you've crossed

limits(Ganger,Noivern,Geninja)Nivy,take Pikachu with you,(Very Sternly)Pikachu!buddy!tell professor Oak to send over all pokemons i've ever had and all those who wants to be present wi
